

affirmatively, in the certified probate and exemplification of the said last will and testament, that the said last will and testament is executed according to the laws of the State of North Carolina in such case made and provided. It is now, on motion of V. S. Lusk, attorney for the propounder of said last will and testament, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing produced and exhibited before me, is a true copy and exemplification of its last will and testament of its said A. Heber, deceased, duly certified and authenticated by Joseph W. Cancell, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, for the County of Kings in the State of New York under his official seal, and that the said last will and testament has been duly proven and allowed in said County of Kings in said State of New York according to the laws thereof. And it is further considered and adjudged that said last will and testament contains a devise of real estate, to Olophoea, nee Plumier, wife of the said A. Heber, deceased, situate, lying and being in the County of Buncombe in the State of North Carolina, and it appearing affirmatively, in the certified probate and exemplification of said last will and testament that the same is executed according to the laws of North Carolina, be and the same is proved and allowed before me as if the original had been produced, and is ordered to be filed and recorded in the Book of Wills for Buncombe County.

J. P. O'Leary, Esq.

The State of South Carolina

I, J. Judger Clark, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make public and declare the following as and for my last will and testament hereby revoking any former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item - I direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and liabilities out of any moneys coming to his hands from my estate.

Item - I give devise and bequeath to John and Fanny, colored persons living in Charles ton, S. C. formerly servants of my father, the sum of fifty dollars to each of them.

Item - I give devise and bequeath unto the Presbyterian Church in Gainesville, Florida, the sum of one thousand dollars; - unto Mrs. Jane Nobaud wife of Dr. (Nobaud of Gainesville, Florida, the sum of one thousand dollars; unto Mrs. Hoyt wife of Rev. Thomas W. Hoyt of Nashville, Tennessee the sum of one thousand dollars; - unto Mrs. Margaret C. Shaw, wife of Wm. B. Shaw of New York the sum of three thousand dollars. - the said legacies being to the said legatees respectively, to them and their respective heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns forever.

Item - I give devise and bequeath unto my uncles John C. Chamber and Benjamin R. Chamber of Marion County, Florida, all my right, title and interest in and to a tract of land known as the Payne Place, and situate in the said Marion County, lately owned by Gen. Wm. S. Ludlow of New York, whether such interest be in the hands of a mortgage held by me on the said place, as by my trustee, Robert Ledges, and in the shape of any other interest, direct or indirect, therein.

This devise being, and to be considered as in full settlement and discharge of any and all claims of any nature or kind whatsoever which they may have against me.

Item - All the rest, residue and remainders of my estate, of any and every kind, real, personal and mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed I give devise and bequeath unto my relative Robert Ledges of the City of Charleston, S.C. to him and his heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns forever, as a token of my regard and appreciation for his many acts of kindness to me.

Item - I nominate, constitute and appoint Robert Ledges of Charleston S.C., Executor of this my last will and testament and hereby invest him with full power and authority to sell and dispose of any and every part, or the whole of my estate on such terms and in such manner as he may deem best, for any purpose he may judge necessary, and proper deeds and conveyances to execute to the purchasers thereof.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, (the words "Sadler wife" being erased on the first page), this nineteenth day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy eight at Charleston, S.C.

J. Ledges Clark (L.S.)

In the matter of the will of } Before J. L. Coathery, Clerk
J. Adger Clark.

Whereas, it has been suggested to me, the Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe County, North Carolina by the affidavit of John P. Arthur, of date February 14th 1891, that a will has been made without the State of North Carolina disposing of property within the State, to wit: by J. Adger Clark whose will was made in Charleston, South Carolina, in which said will has been filed in this office, on Feb. 14th 1891, God probate and disposal of property in Buncombe County in the State of North Carolina, where said Clark resided at the time of his death: and

Whereas, it has been further suggested to the said Clerk by said affidavit of John P. Arthur that the subscribing witnesses to the said will are Augustine T. Smythe, D. M. O'Hessell and Charles C. West and that they reside in the City of Charleston, South Carolina, and that Robert Adger is named in said will as the executor thereof and that he resides in said City of Charleston, but that he is old in years and of infirm health and cannot safely appear and qualify in person before me in the above County and State, but is prepared to give bond as a foreign executor of said will.

Therefore,

To Frank R. Frost, Charleston, South Carolina,

Greeting:

We, reposing special trust and confidence in your integrity, do authorize and empower you to cause Augustine F. Smythe, D.W.
O'Druswell and Charles C. Frost, to appear before you at such time and place as you may appoint, and there and oath to examine touching all such matters and things as they shall know of concerning the execution of the annexed paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. Adged Clark, which paper writing was marked by me
"Filed for probate, February 14th, 1891." And the deposition in writing by you taken, the same to transmit, sealed with your seal to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe County, at Asheville, North Carolina.
And further:

You are hereby authorized and empowered to cause Robert Adged to appear before you at such time and place as you may appoint, and administered with him the following oath, to be subscribed by him and attested by yourself as commissioned and attached to the paper writing purporting to be the will of J.
Adged Clark, deceased.

"You swear that you believe this writing to be and contain the last will and testament of J. Adged Clark, deceased, and that you will well and truly execute the same by first paying the debts and then his legacies so far as the said estate shall extend or the law shall charge you, and that you will faithfully and honestly execute the office of executor agreeably to the trust and confidence reposed in you and according to law, "So help you God."

In your return to me you will certify that you have administered said oath to Robert Adged, and that he took the said oath before you and subscribed his name to said oath after the same had been read ed to writing and attached it to the paper writing purporting to be the last will of J. Adged Clark, deceased.

In the matter of the will } Before J. H. Clardy of J. Adged Clark } Clerk,

And now comes Frank B. Frost, of the city of Charleston and State of South Carolina, Commissioner, acting under and by the power and authority conferred upon him by the clerk of said court, and returns that the paper purporting to be the last will and testament of J. Adged Clark, deceased, and hereto attached, being duly exhibited before him, the undersigned Frank B. Frost, by Robert Adged, the executor thereof mentioned for probate, by the oath and examination of Augustine T. Smythe, Charles C. West and D. M. O'Driscoll, subscribing witnesses thereto.

And the said Augustine T. Smythe, Charles C. West and D. M. O'Driscoll, the said witnesses being now duly present, to wit: on the eighteenth day of February, A. D. 1891, in the City of Charleston, State of South Carolina, and being each duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of J. Adged Clark, deceased.

That the said J. Adged Clark in the presence of these deponents, and each and every of them subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears as to the 19th day of June A. D. 1878 at Charleston, S. C.

And the deponents further say, and each for himself depose and say, that the said J. Adged Clark, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing, so subscribed by him and qualified, to be his last will and testament, and that the deponents and each of them did thereupon subscribe his name, at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other, and these deponents each for himself, further say, that at the same time, when the said testator, J. Adged Clark, subscribed his name to the said last will and testament as aforesaid, and at the time of each of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. Adged Clark was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief, of these deponents, and further these deponents say not.

Augustine T. Smythe,

D. M. O'Driscoll

Charles C. West,

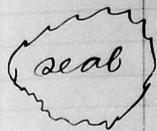

And the said Frank B. Frost, Commissioner as aforesaid, doth hereby certify and return that he duly administered the said oath to the said Augustine T. Smythe, Charles C. West, and D. M. O'Driscoll, and that each took the said oath before him and each subscribed his name to the above deposition after the same had been reduced to writing by the said Frank B. Frost, and thereupon the same had been subscribed and sealed by him, the said Frank B. Frost, and attached by him, to the paper writing purporting to be the last will of J. Adged Clark, deceased, this eighteenth day of February A. D. 1891 - The words "and in the presence of

of each other" being subscribed before signing.
