In case of my death I constitute and appoint my wife Caroline S. Hall, of Asheville & Daniel F. Worth of Wilmington New Hanover Co NC my executrix and executor to this my last will and testament. I hereby constitute my said wife guardian to my minor children, and any that may be borne to us after this date. I devise that my estate may be divided in twelve equal portions and that 1/12 of said portions shall be set aside and apart for the benefit of my said wife during her natural life time, and the said amount be equally divided between her children by her former husband the late J. C. Worth deceased and my children by my two wives, or their representatives. I devise that the other 11 parts of my estate shall be equally divided between my own children or their legal representatives. Witness my hand and seal the day and date above written

State of North Carolina Burcombe County } in the Probate Court

A Paper writing without subscribing witness purporting to be the last will and testament of S. E. Hall deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by Mrs. Caroline S. Hall, therein named as executrix.

And thereupon it is duly proved, by the oath and examination of Melvin E. Carter who being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the said will was found amongst the valuable papers and effects of the said S. E. Hall, after his death and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three creditable witnesses; Melvin E. Carter, W. H. McLaugherty, and W. E. Davidson, who being duly sworn deposite and say, ~~that~~ and each for him self deposite and say, that they and each of them, are acquainted with the hand writing of the said S. E. Hall, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said S. E. Hall subscribed to the said will, and the said will its self and every part thereof are in the hand writing of the said S. E. Hall, and that the hand writing is generally known to the acquaintances of the said S. E. Hall.

In the name of God, Amen:—I, William B. Plummer, of the city of Hoboken, in the County of Hoboken, and State of New Jersey, being of sound and disposing mind, Memory, and understanding, and calling to mind the mortality of my body, knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die, and being desirous of settling and disposing of such worldly estate, wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, with strength and Capacity, admit, do hereby publish, pronounce, or-dain and declare this my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say:—

First: I order and direct, and my will is that in the first place, all and singular, my just debts, funeral expenses and testamentary costs, charges and disbursements be first duly paid and satisfied out of my estate by my executrices hereinafter named, and appointed, or the survivor of them as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second: I do give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Eliza B. Plummer, all and singular my household goods chattels, plate, beds, bedding, linen, jewelry, printed books and family stores, and all other articles and things of household furniture situate and being in my dwelling house, in which I now reside, or such other dwelling house as I may reside in, at the time of my decease. and also my Iron safe. To have and to hold, the same unto my said wife, her executors administrators and assigns forever, to her and their own proper use and ~~and to the~~ benefit and behoof forever.

Third: I do also give and devise unto my said wife all and singular my right, title, interest, and estate, whatever such right, title, interest and estate may be in and to all those two certain dwelling houses together with the lots of lands and premises upon which the same are erected, known as street numbers One hundred and ninety eight, and two hundred and twelve, Washington street, in the said city of Hoboken, with the messages, premises, appurtenances, and hereditaments.

To have and to hold the same unto my said wife her heirs and assigns to her and their own sole and proper use and benefit and behoof forever.

Fourth: I do also give and bequeath unto my said wife the one equal one third part of all
