J. W. Cummings.

First.

I, J. W. Cummings, being in good health, of sound mind and memory do make, ordain and declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking and setting aside all former wills by me heretofore made; that is to say: To my wife, Isabella W. Cummings I give, devise and bequeath the use during her life of all my property, real, personal or mixed, including the income from rents, interests in accounts, notes, bonds and mortgages &c. to be used by her in payment of my funeral expences, and any debts that may arise, the taxes and insurance against loss by fire, and in support of herself and my daughter, Belle P. Cummings as long as they may resideth together.

Any surplus of income remaining, after meeting expences before named, my wife may use for the benefit of my children, according to the best judgment of their necessities. My executors hereinafter named, are directed to sell all or any part of my real estate however located as soon as a fair market value can be secured for the same, and re-invest the avails and hold the same during the life of my wife, Isabella W. Cummings.

Second

The income from such investments to be used by my wife as before directed: Upon the decease of my wife or as soon after as sales are made of the property, my surviving executors shall divide the property left, or coming into their hands, as follows: To my daughter, Belle, if then living, or to her issue, one fifth (1/5) of all my property, but if deceased and having no issue, then all my property shall be divided equally among my then, living sons, or in the event of the death of either of them to their legal issue if there are such. In other words my son and successor that my daughter should have the fifth and my sons the remaining four fifths in equal shares. The share to each son, or his issue shall be paid to him or them ~~each~~ as soon after the death of my wife as my executors can sell and control the avails provided that at that time my sons, are of sober and frugal habits but should either of them be addicted to habits of drunkenness or other habits of waste, then I instruct and enjoin my executors to invest in good security the share of such intemperate son or sons and pay over to him or them, his or their families the income only of his or their share of my estate until such son or sons have thoroughly reformed and become sober, moral and modest rigourous, when the principal shall be paid them. In other words, (I do not wish) the avails of my life of industry and sobriety, must not be given into the control of any one of intemperate or wasteful habits. my executors must by all means in their power prevent this. In the event of the death of either of my sons without legal issue his share shall be equally divided among his brothers then living. And if my daughter should die without issue or intestate her share of my estate shall be equally divided among her then living brothers. I make and appoint my wife, my daughter and my sons, Parish A. and Clark W. Cummings my executors, and I do hereby direct that neither or either of my executors, whatever their residence; shall be required to give bonds as executors.

Third

That, J. L. Carroll, late of said County, is dead, having first made and published his last will and Testament, and that Sarah M. Carroll is the executor named therein.

Further, that the property of the said J. L. Carroll consisting, houses, lots, stocks and bonds, notes etc., is worth about $25,000, so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Sarah M.
Carroll, John L. Carroll Jr. A. Mitchell Carroll, Eugene Carroll, are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this ³

Sarah M. Carroll
w.m.

Chapel Hill, N.C. ³
May 2nd 1892 ³

I, John L. Carroll, a citizen of North Carolina, and for the time being of the village of Chapel Hill, in the County of Orange, being in good health and in the full exercise of my mental faculties; but mindful of the uncertainty of life and the importance of a provision for death, do make this my last will and Testament in regard to the disposition of my worldly goods which I shall have gone hence.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah M. Carroll all personal and real property held in my name after paying all outstanding debts, if any so her executors and trustees, to keep or sell and to dispose of at her death upon such condition, and with two trifling exceptions which latter are first, my watch and chain, which I give to my beloved son Eugene Carroll, with the hope that he will keep it for life as a token of his father's love.

And second - I give to any beloved son, A. Mitchell Carroll all such books of mine as he may desire to select.

The single condition upon which the above beloved wife is made is that she relinquish all claim to and interest in the proceeds of my several life insurance policies, which I want to be equally divided between my three beloved sons John L. Jr., A. Mitchell, and Eugene Carroll after counting out of the shares of the two first named the Amounts of money I have furnished them since they became 21 years of age; which amounts will be found in my account book.

I desire that my son Mitchell Carroll shall become the guardian, without bond, of my son Eugene that he will take charge of his education until 21 years old, keeping him at school or not, at his discretion; that he will want Eugene's share of the proceeds of my insurance in good & peaceful part mortgage bonds, and use the interest, or as much thereof as may be necessary, in paying his expenses for schooling, Clothing &c.

If it shall be found necessary to have an administrator of the provisions of the will, I want my beloved wife Sarah M. Carroll to serve in that capacity, without bond.

If she shall, from any cause, decline to accept of the condition upon which the Conveyance to her in this will is made, then the entire instrument is to be null and void, and the court may appoint an administrator and divide the estate according to law.
Witness

J. L. Carroll.

Codicil - If it be not settled before my death, I desire that a certain bond and mortgage for $250 and until due by my beloved sister Mrs. Mattie J. Rigar of Magnolia, Halifax Co. N.C. which bond and mortgage are in the hands of the trustee, my brother L. R. Carroll of Warsaw, N.C. be given to the said Mrs. Rigar without charge, as a token of my love and affection.

Oct. 10. 1894.

J. L. Carroll.
