Rudolph Trompeter of the City of New York being duly sworn and examined before a Surrogate's Court of the County of Kings, deposed and says:

I was well acquainted with August Heber now deceased.
That the subscription of the name of said decedent, at the end of the instrument probate as the last will and testament of the said August Heber deceased, and bearing date the 16th day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven was made by the said decedent at the City of New York in the presence of myself and the other subscribing witnesses.

That at the time of making such subscription the said decedent declared the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament, and I thereupon signed my name as a witness, at the end of said instrument, at the request of said decedent, and in his presence, I also saw said W. E. Tunison the other subscribing witness, sign his name as a witness at the end of said will, and know that he did so at the request and in the presence of said decedent.

That the said decedent, at the time of executing the said instrument, was over the age of twenty one years, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint, and competent in every respect to make a will.

At a Surrogate Court held in and for the County of Kings, at the Surrogate Court Room, in the Hall of Records, in the City of Brooklyn, on the 29th day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Present, Hon. George B. Abbott, Surrogate.
In the matter of the probate of the last will and testament of August Weber Late of the City of Brooklyn, deceased.

Where granting probate.

Satisfactory proof having been made of the due service of the citation herein provided of the due appearance, being by all persons entitled to notice of this proceeding.

And the witnesses to said last will and testament having been sworn and examined, their examination reduced to writing and filed, and it appearing by such proofs that the said will was duly executed, and that the testator, at the time of executing it, was in all respects competent to make a will, and not under any restraint, and this court being satisfied of the genuineness of the will, and the validity of its execution; and the probate thereof not having been contested,

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the instrument offered for probate herein be, and the same hereby is, admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said August Weber, deceased, valid to pass real and personal property, and that the said will, with the proofs thereof, and this decree be recorded, and that Letters Testamentary be issued to the executors who may qualify thereunder.

Geo. B. Abbott,
Surrogate.

State of New York,
County of Kings,
Surrogate's Court.

I, Joseph W. Carroll, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, in and for the said County of Kings, do hereby certify, that I have compared the foregoing copy of the record of the last will and testament, the deposition of the subscribing witnesses and the decree admitting to probate the last will and testament of August Heber Late of the City of Brooklyn, deceased, with the original records thereof now remaining in this office, and have found the same to be correct transcripts therefrom, and of the whole of such original records, and I further certify that said exemplification would be received in evidence in all the Courts of the State of New York.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the Surrogate's Court, this 16th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Joseph W. Carroll,
Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

State of New York,
County of Kings.

I, George B. Abbott, Surrogate of Kings County, and presiding Magistrate of the Surrogate's Court do hereby certify that Joseph W. Carroll, whose signature is affixed to the foregoing certificate, is the Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, and that the foregoing exemplification is attested in due form of law, and that the seal thereto affixed is the seal of said Surrogate's Court. Witness, my hand, and the seal of said Surrogate's Court this 16th day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Geo. B. Abbott, Surrogate.

The People of the State of New York,
By the Grace of God Free and Independent.
To whom these presents shall or may concern,

Send Greeting:
Know Ye, that at the City of Brooklyn in the County of Kings, on the 29th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, before Hon. George B. Abbott, Surrogate of our said County, the last will and testament of August Heber, Late of the City of Brooklyn, deceased, was produced, and is now approved and allowed by us; and, Whereas, the said deceased, at the time of his death, was a resident of the County of Kings, by reason whereof the filing and registering of the said will, and the granting administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, and also the auditing, allowing and final discharging the account thereof, doth belong unto the Surrogate's Court of said County, the administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, in any way concerning his will, is granted unto Olophar Heber and Charles E. Lynch Executors in the said will named they being first duly sworn faithfully and honestly to discharge the duties of said executors. In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the Surrogate's Court of Kings County to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. George B. Abbott, Surrogate of our said County at the City of Brooklyn, the 29th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and of our Independence the one hundred and fiftieth.

George B. Abbott, Surrogate.

State of New York.
County of Kings.
Surrogate's Court.
I, Joseph W. Carroll, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, in and for the said County of Kings, do hereby certify, that I have compared the foregoing copy of the records of the last testamentary granted to Cleophea Weber and Charles E. Leuch Executors under the will of August Weber late of the City of Brooklyn deceased, with the original records thereof now remaining in this office, and have found the same to be correct transcripts therefrom, and of the whole of such original records. And I further certify that said exemplification would be received in evidence in all the courts of the State of New York.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the Surrogate's Court, this 16th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one.
Joseph W. Carroll
Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

State of New York.
Kings County.
I, George B. Abbott, Surrogate of Kings County, and presiding Magistrate of the Surrogate's Court, do hereby certify that Joseph W. Carroll, whose signature is affixed to the foregoing certificate, is the Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, and that the foregoing exemplification is attested in due form of Law, and that the seal thereto affixed is the seal of said Surrogate's Court.
Witness my hand, and the seal of said Surrogate's Court this 16th day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety one.

Surrogate.

State of North Carolina } In the Buncombe County } Superior Court.
A paper writing purporting to be a copy of the last will and testament of A. Weber, a citizen of the County of Kings in the State of New York, bearing date, June 15th, 1887, is exhibited before me John L. Cathey, Clerk of the Superior Court and judge of Probate, in and for the said County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, for probate and record by me as provided by Law.
And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the last will and testament of the said A. Weber, deceased, has been duly proven and allowed in the Surrogate's Court for the County of Kings, in said State of New York, according to the laws thereof, and that the said paper writing now presented and offered for probate and record in this County, and State of North Carolina, is a true copy and exemplification of the said last will and testament approved and allowed as aforesaid of the said A. Weber, deceased, and that said copy and exemplification of said last will and testament has been duly filed and authenticated by Joseph W. Carroll, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court of the County of Kings in the State of New York, under his official seal.
And it further appearing to the Court that said last will and testament as aforesaid, contains a devise of real estate to Cleophea nee Blumer wife of the said A. Weber, deceased, which said devise of real estate is situated lying and being in the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, and it further appearing to the satisfaction of said Court affirmatively, in the certified probate and exemplification of the said last will and testament, that the said last will and testament is executed according to the laws of the State of North Carolina in such case made and provided. It is now, on motion of V. S. Lusk, attorney for the proponents of said last will and testament, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing produced and exhibited before me, is a true copy and exemplification of the last will and testament of the said A. Heber, deceased, duly certified and authenticated by Joseph W. Canell, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court, for the County of Kings in the State of New York under his official seal, and that the said last will and testament has been duly proved and allowed in said County of Kings in said State of New York according to the laws thereof. And it is further considered and adjudged that said last will and testament contains a devise of real estate, to Sophia, nee Plumer, wife of the said A. Heber, deceased, situate, lying and being in the County of Buncombe in the State of North Carolina, and it appearing affirmatively, in the certified probate and exemplification of said last will and testament that the same is executed according to the laws of North Carolina, and the same is proved and allowed before me as if the original had been produced, and is ordered filed and recorded in the Book of Wills for Buncombe County.
