Clerk of the Superior Court of the County of Buncombe, State of North Carolina,

State of North Carolina,
County of Buncombe,

In the matter of the will of Baron Eugene d'Allinges.

The undersigned Geo. F. Weston a citizen of the County of Buncombe County, and State of North Carolina, being first duly sworn deposes and says:

That he has in his possession an instrument in writing, signed and sealed by Baron Eugene d'Allinges, formerly a citizen of Baltimore, in said County and State, and Witnessed by Chas. A. Kendrickson, D. J. Copeland, and R. E. Brown, citizens and residents of the City of Baltimore in the State of Maryland, as offiant is informed and believes, and that said instrument bears Geo. F. Weston, a citizen of Buncombe County, North Carolina, as executor, and purports to be the last will and testament of Baron Eugene d'Allinges, made without the State of North Carolina and disposing of lands and other property, both situated, and being within the State of North Carolina, and the said County of Buncombe, as offiant is informed and believes, and that offiant is informed and believes the said Baron Eugene d' Allinges, died on or about the 28th day of July, 1895, at Rotschendaen Saxon, Switzerland.

Now offiant therefore asks that a commission be appointed in the City of Baltimore, and State of Maryland, to take the examination of said witnesses herein, before named to the said last will and testament of the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, touching the execution of the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, so that the same may be properly found affiant as Executor there named. Asks to have said last will and testament of said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, duly admitted to probate in said office.

In Re.

Baron Eugene d'Allinges' Last Will and Testament.

Probate

Whereas it was made to appear to the clerk of the superior court of said County and State, that Baron Eugene d'Allinges, late a resident of the County and State aforesaid, was dead, that he has made published and declared, his last will and testament within this State, disposing of land and other property located in the State of North Carolina, and County of Barncombe.

And whereas a commission was duly issued by said clerk of said superior court to Philip H. Hoffman Esq. of the City of Baltimore and State of Maryland, with his office at Nos. 220 & 222, Equitable Building in said City of Baltimore, authorizing said commission to take the examination of B.R. Henderson, D.J. Copeland and R.E. Brown, the subscribing witnesses to said Baron Eugene d'Allinges' last will and testament touching the due execution thereof by said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, which examination together with the said last will and testament is hereto attached and included in and made a part of this order. Marked Exhibit "A".

And whereas it appearing from said examination so made, by said commission that the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, duly executed the said paper writing; that the same is in due form and is the last will and testament of the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges.

It is, now therefore ordered and adjudged that the said paper writing so made published and executed by the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Baron Eugene d'Allinges, and the same is hereby admitted to probate and ordered to be filed and recorded in this office according to law.

This Sept. 21st 1845

J. D. Cathey,
Clerk of the superior court Barncombe County, N.C.

hereto attached. To be and contain the last will and testament of Baron Eugene d'Allinges deceased, and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying his debts, and then his legacies as far as the said estate shall extend, or the law will charge me, and that I will well and truly execute the office of Executor, according to the trust reposed in me and according to law.

Sworn to and subscribed before me Sept 21st 1845.
