In the name of God - Amen,
I, David Garren of the said County, and State, being of sound and disposing Mind Memory and understanding, Praise be to God, for the same, deem it prudent to make a general disposition of all my property, both real and personal, and to this end I make and publish my last Will and Testament as follows, VIZ:

First, I direct that my Executor hereinafter named, shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my Family.

Second I direct my said Executor to pay all my funeral expenses, and all my just debts owing from me, out of the first money that shall pass into his hands by virtue of the provisions of this will.

Item - I give to my beloved wife Margaret the tract of land on which I now live, to gether with the tract I bought of John E. Young, and also the tract I bought of Joseph C. Henry, except that portion of the said Henry adjoining lands of Joseph which excepted part is bounded as follows; Beginning in a Buckeye, a Corner between my self and John E. Young running East (20) poles with the line between the land that boundary of John C. Young, and Joseph C. Henry, so a stake; thence North to a line between my self and Joseph Garren. Thence South west with said line to a Buckeye, the Corner, between my self and Joseph Garren. Thence South with the dividing line between my self and said Joseph Garren to John E. Young's line - then East with said Young's line to the beginning for the term of her natural life, and this I intend to be in lieu of Dower and I intend her to enjoy it, as though it had been allotted to her in Pursuance of Law.

Item - I give to my said wife Margaret Five Hundred Dollars in cash; One Horse or Mule; Two Cows and Calves; and all the Sheep, and Hogs, I may own at my death - The said property to be of her own selection, and also all the domestic fowls and poultry I may have; One Buggy and Harness, all the grain and Crops, and Provisions of every kind that may be on hand at my death, all the household and kitchen furniture (including beds and bed furniture and Sewing Machine) one wagon and harness, and all my Farming tools and implements that may be on hand at my death. Except a Set of blacksmith Tools, the several matters and things thus given in this item I give to my said wife absolutely.

Item - I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to sell all the residue of my Personal estate first giving (20) days notice, on a credit of (12) months taking bond and approved Security for the Purchase Money with interest from date. I wish this residue of my Personal estate thus turned in to a cash fund - after paying off the foregoing legacies &c. I direct my said Executor, to give the residue of said fund as follows, VIZ: One Sixth to be given to my said wife Margaret, One Sixth to my daughter Rozella Patton, one Sixth to my Son Joseph K. Garren, One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Son Joshua Garren to be equally divided between them; One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Son John Garren to be equally divided between them; One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Daughter Hannah Young to be equally divided between them.

Item - I direct my said Executor to sell all the residue of my real estate not theretofore disposed of first giving (40) days notice on a credit of one and two years taking bond bearing interest from date with good and sufficient security, for the purchase money, reserving the title till the purchase money is paid - My purpose is to ~~turn~~ this part of my Estate in to a cash fund, which fund I direct to be disposed of and divided as follows that is to say; one fifth to Rozilla Patton; One fifth to Joseph R Garren; One fifth to the children of my deceased son Joshua Garren to be equally divided between them; one fifth to my deceased son John Garren's children to be equally divided between them; One fifth to the children of my deceased daughter Hannah Young to be equally divided between them; I do hereby constitute my son Joseph R Garren the Executor of this my last Will and Testament to execute the same according to the Provisions thereof, In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this the 12th day of May Anno. Domini 1884.
