I L. C. Cady, Clerk
Superior Court Buncombe County North Carolina

Whereupon
Letters issued to L. D. McKee, this July 24th 1894

I L. C. Cady
Clerk Superior Court Buncombe County N.C.

North Carolina: --- Buncombe County, I, Floretta M. Neal, of the County, and State aforesaid, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament;

First: My Executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable and to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first money which may come into his hands, belonging to estate.

Second: I give and bequeath to my daughter Lula Rachel Jackson, the wife of Benjamin J. Jackson, all my household and kitchen furniture and wearing apparel.

Third:
I give and bequeath to my said daughter Lula Rachel Jackson, and to my grandson Arthur L. Lauer, in equal parts, share and share alike, the residue of my personal estate consisting principally of the sum of a deposit of money in the Savings Department of the Western Carolina Bank.

Fourth: Whereas my grandson has been in my charge and solely dependent on me for support, for the last eight years or thereabout, or since he was two years old, his mother having been dead for that period of time, and he having been wholly deserted by his father, who during all that time has contributed nothing to his support, and has manifested no paternal affection for him; - and I feeling myself to be the natural guardian of said child, do now and hereby declare my wish that my said daughter Lula Rachel Jackson, shall keep and raise said child and be to all intents and purposes his guardian, and that the bequest made to said child shall be controlled and disbursed by her for fifth. I hereby constitute and appoint my son in law, Benjamin J. Jackson, my lawfull executor to set intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and holding utterly void all other wills and testament by me heretofore made.

The witness Whang & the said Flora McNeal do hereby set my hand and seal, this the third day of July A.D. 1894.
Flora McNeal

Signed said published and declared by the said Flora McNeal, to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, and at her request and in her presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

This the third day of July, 1894

North Carolina
Buncombe County?

In the name of God - Amen,
I David Garren, of the said County, and State, being of Sound and disposing Mind Memory and understanding, Praise be to God, for the same, deem it prudent to make a general disposition of all my property, both real and personal and to this end I make and publish my last Will and Testament as follows, to-wit:

First, I direct that my Executor hereinafter named, shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my Family.

Second I direct my said Executor to pay all my funeral expenses, and all my just debts owing from me, out of the first money that shall pass into his hands by virtue of the provisions of this will.

Item - I give to my beloved wife Margaret, the Tract of land on which I now live, to gether with the tract I bought of John E. Young, and also the tract I bought of Joseph E. Henry, except that portion of the said Henry adjoining lands of Joseph which excepted part is bounded as follows: Beginning in a Buckeye, a Corner between my self and John E. Young running East (20) poles with the line between the said John E. Young and Joseph E. Henry, and then North to a line between my self and Joseph E. Henry. Thence South west with said line to a Buckeye, the Corner, between my self and Joseph E. Henry. Thence South with the dividing line between my self and said Joseph E. Henry to John E. Young's line - then East with said Young's line to the beginning for the term of her natural life, and this I intend to be in lieu of Dower and I intend her to enjoy it, as though it had been allotted to her in Pursuance of Law.

Item - I give to my said wife Margaret Five Hundred Dollars in cash; One Horse or Mule; Two Cows and Calves; and all the Sheep, and Hogs, I may own at my death - The said property to be of her own Selection, and also all the domestic fowls and poultry I may have; One Buggy and Harness, all the Grain and Crops, and Provisions of every kind that may be on hand at my death, all the Household and kitchen furniture (including beds and bed furniture and Sewing Machine) one Wagon and Harness, and all my Farming tools and implements that may be on hand at my death. Except a Set of blacksmith Tools, the several matters and things thus given in, this I give to my said wife absolutely.

Item - I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to sell all the residue of my Personal estate first giving (20) days notice, on a credit of (12) months taking bond and approved Security for the Purchase Money with interest from date. I wish this residue of my Personal estate thus turned in to a cash fund - after paying off the foregoing legacies &c. I direct my said Executor, to give the residue of said fund as follows, to-wit:

One Sixth to be given to my said wife Margaret. One Sixth to my daughter Rozella Patton, one Sixth to my Son Joseph B. Garren. One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Son Joshua Garren to be equally divided between them; One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Son John Garren to be equally divided between them; One Sixth to the Children of my deceased Daughter Hannah Young to be equally divided between them.
