This is the last will and Testament, Jacob Reede, of the County of Buncombe, in the State of North Carolina that is to say:

I direct my Executor hereinafter named to promptly pay all my just debts after my death.
Item: I devise to my beloved wife Henry Reede her life estate for her natural life in all my lands situated in the County of Buncombe aforesaid.
Item: I bequeath to my said wife a life estate for her own life in my negro slaves, to wit: "Silvia", "Henry" "Davi" and "Joe" and any slave I may own at my death, and a like estate in the increase of slave "Silvia" after the date of this will, and the increase of any slave or slaves that I may hereafter acquire by purchase or otherwise.
Item: I bequeath to my said wife the use of all my other personal property of any kind whatsoever, including monies, rights, credits, stocks &c. &c. for her comfort and support during her natural life, it being my intention that my said wife shall have the use of my property of every kind while she lives.
For satisfactory reasons to myself and which I do not choose to set down here, it is not my purpose to give any of my sons any portion of my property. If this seems strange, I have good reasons for such action, which for prudential reasons I do not choose to make public.
My friend Johnston Sheworth has obliged himself to me by covenant, to manage my business and that of my wife, if she survives me, for my mutual benefit, comfort and support, and in the contingency of want, death or other evil happening to us, or either of us, to provide for us a comfortable home, maintenance and support for our natural lives and for the life of the survivor of us, and I deem it just to benefit him, after providing for my said wife, and indeed I have obliged myself by covenant to do so; and in discharge of said duty and my said covenant, I devise to said Johnston Ashworth and his heirs, the remainder after the life estate of my said wife is over, in all my lands situate in said County of Buncombe. (I have executed to said Ashworth a deed of bargain and sale for said land and this provision is in confirmation of my said deed) I also give to said Johnston Ashworth the remainder interest in said slaves, to wit: "Sidda", "Henry", "Sam", & "Joe" and the increase of the same after the date of this will, after the life estate limited to my said wife is over and also the remainder in my slave or slaves and their increase which I may hereafter purchase or acquire by any means. I also give to said Johnston Ashworth after my said wife has enjoyed the use of the same while she lives, all my other personal property of any kind whatsoever, including money, rights, credits, stock of cattle, sheep, farming tools, property &c. &c. &c. This I do as a matter of duty and in discharge of my said covenant executed the 10th day of June A. D. 1864.

I hereby appoint said Johnston Ashworth to be the Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness of all which, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 10th day of June A. D. 1864.

(Signed) Jacob Reed (Seal)

At the request of Jacob Reed we have witnessed the execution of the foregoing will by him, in his presence and in the presence of said witnesses this 10th day of June A. D. 1864.
