

Last will and Testament of the Said Anna B. Graesbach, deceased, duly certified and authenticated by the Court in which the said last will and testament has been proven and allowed.

It is now considered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said paper writing so certified and authenticated and produced before me as a copy of the said last will and testament of the said Anna B. Graesbach, deceased, be allowed filed and recorded in the book of wills for Buncombe County.

J. L. Cathey, Clerk.

upon reading and filing the foregoing certified copy of the will of Anna B. Graesbach.

It is adjudged, that letters testamentary issue to Benoit Grobick and Edwin Shippen the Executors named therein, on this 18th day of Nov. 1894 and therefore letters testamentary issue to Benoit Grobick & Edwin Shippen
Nov. 18th 1894

J. L. Cathey Clerk

State of N.C.

Buncombe Co.

Know all whom it may concern that this is my last Will and Testament. first after my just and overt debts, is paid and my body desirely put a way in a Linen brand, and a Walnut case, made by William West and George and this my last will shall be read at my Bering. By my Executors first I will Tell my personal property to my Loving Wife Lencia Grody, second I Will my Loving Wife, all that parcel of Land known as the Farm Maria Land, county Bant from my Father, as long as she remains a Widow, if she marries, then my Executors shall sell they place, and divide they money equally Among my children, if she remains a widow as long as she lives she shall possess that portion of Land I describe in this my will and at her death my will is that my Executors may sell they land and divide they Money & Money my children equally, as they come come of age I furthermore say that my loving wife may have control of the Place known as The Henderson place Which was bought from Don Henderson, by my Father and owned by me as long as my Executors see fit, not to sell they Henderson place, my will is if my Executors see fit to sell the Henderson place, they may do so and divide they money equal to my children as they come of age. I know give my Executors full power, to collect any notes I have and hand and my will is that they money be put to they use, of my family & all the Expenses, is paid and my will is that my sons J. B. and B. A. Grody, See my Executors to this my last will and Testament. This, the 10th day of October 1893.

J. A. Grody

North Carolina

Buncombe County

W. A. Quail, J. L. Richman, and W. M. Neils, being duly sworn each for himself, depose, and says, That he is well acquainted with the handwriting of J. A. Grady having given some time write, and that having been a paper writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last will and testament of the said J. A. Grady, deceased, now Exhibited for probate by J. B. Grady and B. A. Grady, Executors thereof named to J. P. Coker, Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe County, he being before the name of said J. A. Grady, subscribed to the said paper writing and the said paper writing itself and every part thereof are in the proper handwriting of the said J. A. Grady, deceased.

W. M. Miller
J. L. Richmond
W. A. Israel

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 1st day of Nov. 1894

J. P. Coker, C.S.C.
Re. J. A. Grady Deceased.

North Carolina 3
Buncombe County 3 In Superior Court,
Lenora Grady being, duly sworn says, that she has seen a paper writing, without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last will and testament of J. A. Grady, deceased, now Exhibited for probate in open Court, by J. B. Grady and B. A. Grady, the Executors thereof named therein, and that the said will was found by her, among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. A. Grady after his death, being in chat with the notes and, and other valuable papers of the said, deceased,

Lenora ^{her} Grady
mark

Sworn to and subscribed before me this Nov. 1st 1894.

J. P. Coker, C.S.C.
Re. J. A. Grady Deceased.

North Carolina 3
Buncombe County 3 In Superior Court

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last will and testament of J. A. Grady, deceased, is Exhibited for probate in open Court by J. B. Grady and B. A. Grady, the Executors thereof named, and it is therefore sworn by the oath and Examination of Lenora Grady, that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of said J. A. Grady, after his death and it is further found by the oath and Examination of competent and credible witnesses to wit: W. A. Israel, J. L. Richmond, and W. M. Miller, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of said J. A. Grady, having given some time write and verify, believe that the name of J. A. Grady, subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof, are in the handwriting of the said J. A. Grady, it is therefore concluded by the Court, that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said J. A. Grady, deceased, and the same is ordered to be received and filed this 20th day of Nov. 1894

J. P. Coker
Clerk Superior Court.