

June Term 1864

The last Will and Testament of James A. Patten Born Asheville NC April 30th 1861

I James A. Patten being about to go with my Company to repel our Southern enemies; and being aware of the many vicissitudes that may attend such a duty desirous of providing for my wife in case I do not return, make this my last Will & Testament revoking all others of a date prior to this to wit:

1st I make my Brother W. A. Patten or my friend Mr.
A. J. Sherry - executor of this my last will & testament either or both of them.

2<sup>d</sup> It is my wish that all my debts be paid, selecting for that purpose such property as my executors may choose best after consultation with my wife, whose wishes if possible I desire followed out; and if there be any excess it is my wish that it go to my beloved wife Anna E. Patten, to estimate, after my debts are paid, I will desire & bequeath all the residue of my estate, of whatever nature it may be, whether real personal or mixed to my wife Anna E. Patten absolutely.
In testimony of the truth of the above, these presents set my & affixed my seal, day and date above written mentioning.

Signed & sealed in presence of

J. M. Blair
J. R. Osborne.

The last June Term 1864

The last Will and Testament of Benj' Combs
In the name of God Amen

I Benj' Combs of the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina Resident of the waters of South Holmgay Creek now in the County for the space of my age but in good health and of sound and disposing memory do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament.

Inasmuch I direct my body to be decently interred at the Pisgah meetinghouse under the direction of my Executor to rest in the ground until with humble reliance on the mercy of God through our Lord Jesus Christ I trust it will arise on the last day to the resurrection of the just.

To touching such worldly substance as it hath pleased God to bly me with. I do direct them as follows after my death
