10. Qd. The Name of Test. Amend.
I Jesse H. Weaver, of the State of the state of North Carolina, and County of Blounton In view of the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, and my present legal circumstances feel it my duty to make some distribution of my estate, both personal & real, with which a gracious God has surrounded me, and being of sound & disposing mind & memory. I do ordain publish and declare this the following, my last Will, and Testament

I commit my soul to a kind and gracious God, who gave it, and my body to the Tomb, to mingle with the dust untill the great resurrection day.

It is my will and desire, that my body have a plain and decent burial, with a plain marble slab at the head, with the date of birth and death on it.

It is my will and desire, that my Executors, (hereinafter named) proceed immediately after my death, to pay all my just debts, and to enable them so to do. I want them first to collect what they can, of my fee and dues, and then sell my Tennessee Land, and my farm at the fork of Flat Creek, in this County.

It is my will and desire, that the two divisions of my Old Farm, which are not deducted to the next two of my sons, who may live to arrive to the age of twenty one years, the one who first attains that age, to have choice of tracts.

It is my will and desire, that my wife Julia Ann remain in possession and controll of the farms we now live on as her dower, during her natural life, or widowhood, And enable her to live bountiful and comfortable and be able to raise and educate the ~~the~~ minor children, I want kept all the stock, tools, and vehicles, which she and my executors may think necessary for her comfort and the profitable cultivation of the farm. And should there be any surplus stock, vehicles, or tools of any description, I want it sold by my executors and the proceeds applied to the payment of my debts, or to the common fund for the support of and the educating of my children.

It is my will and desire, that the farm I now live on, at the death of my wife or her second marring, be divided between the remaining surviving children to wit Susan C. Thomas L. and Sally Kat. And I should disinterested men value it higher than those tracts of my old farm, after allowing Thomas L. a liberal allowance for his care and support of his mother and sisters. That in that case he may pay over to the others whose share shall be considered of less value enough to make them equal.

It is my will and desire, that after the death of my wife, that all the property remaining of whatever description personal or real, except the land herein divided, be equally divided between my children, who may be then living or their legal heirs, and the legal heirs of such as may have died. Should they have left any such heirs, should my wife see proper to marry again, then in that case I will and desire, that the property be divided as above stated—affording her a child's part.

It is my will that upon sale of my Tennessee lands by my executors as directed. That one third of the purchase money be paid over to my mother-in-law Susan Coulter if she is living at the time of said sale. It is my will and desire, that my esteemed friend and brother-in-law R. V. Blackstocks, and my oldest son James L. Weaver, Jr. and I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint them my executors of this my last will and testament.

Nov 10th

It is my will and desire, that when my executors shall make a final settlement with the heirs that the said children all own them a liberal allowance for their trouble in attending to the estate, for Testimony whereof. I have herein to set my hand and seal this the 26th day of January 1869,
