

Application for Letters Testamentary;

County - I am the Superior Court.
In the matter of the will of ³ before, J. L. Cathey
J. L. Carroll

Sarah M. Carroll being duly sworn, doth say: That, J. L. Carroll, late of said County, is dead, having first made and published his last will and Testament, and that Sarah M. Carroll is the executor named therein.

Further, that the property of the said J. L. Carroll consisting, houses, lots, stocks and bonds, notes etc., is worth about $25,000, so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Sarah M.
Carroll, John L. Carroll Jr. A. Mitchell Carroll, Eugene Carroll, are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this ³ 1 day of July 1895.

J. L. Cathey S.C.

Sarah M. Carroll
w.m.

Chapel Hill, N.C. ³
May 2nd 1892 ³

I, John L. Carroll, a citizen of North Carolina, and for the time being of the village of Chapel Hill, in the County of Orange, being in good health and in the full exercise of my mental faculties; but mindful of the uncertainty of life and the importance of a provision for death, do make this my last will and Testament in regard to the disposition of my worldly goods which I shall have gone hence.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah M. Carroll all personal and real property held in my name after paying all outstanding debts, if any so her executors and trustees, to keep or sell and to dispose of at her death upon such condition, and with two trifling exceptions which latter are first, my watch and chain, which I give to my beloved son Eugene Carroll, with the hope that he will keep it for life as a token of his father's love.

And second - I give to any beloved son, A. Mitchell Carroll all such books of mine as he may desire to select.

The single condition upon which the above beloved wife is made is that she relinquish all claim to and interest in the proceeds of my several life insurance policies, which I want to be equally divided between my three beloved sons John L. Jr., A. Mitchell, and Eugene Carroll after counting out of the shares of the two first named the Amounts of money I have furnished them since they became 21 years of age; which amounts will be found in my account book.

I desire that my son Mitchell Carroll shall become the guardian, without bond, of my son Eugene that he will take charge of his education until 21 years old, keeping him at school or not, at his discretion; that he will want Eugene's share of the proceeds of my insurance in good & peaceful part mortgage bonds, and use the interest, or as much thereof as may be necessary, in paying his expenses for schooling,
Clothing &c.

If it shall be found necessary to have an administrator of the provisions of the will, I want my beloved wife Sarah M. Carroll to serve in that capacity, without bond.

If she shall, from any cause, decline to accept of the condition upon which the Conveyance to her in this will is made, then the entire instrument is to be null and void, and the court may appoint an administrator and divide the estate according to law.
Witness

J. L. Carroll.

Codicil - If it be not settled before my death, I desire that a certain bond and mortgage for $250 and until due by my beloved sister Mrs. Mattie J. Rigar of Magnolia, Halifax Co. N.C. which bond and mortgage are in the hands of the trustee, my brother L. R. Carroll of Warsaw, N.C. be given to the said Mrs. Rigar without charge, as a token of my love and affection.

Oct. 10. 1894.

J. L. Carroll.

North Carolina
Buncombe County

In the matter of the will of J. L. Carroll

affidavts.

W. W. Barnard, H. C. Waddell Jr. and J. W. Sluder, being duly sworn according to law says, each for himself:

That he is acquainted with the hand writing of the late J. L. Carroll, and said he believes that the name after the said J. L. Carroll subscribed to his will & the said will itself & every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll; that the said hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll is generally known to his acquaintances.

That he has read the will of said J. L. Carroll & carefully noted the said handwriting & is no doubt that the signature to the same & the said will itself & every part thereof are the genuine hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll.

I swear to subscribe before me July 1st, 1895.

J. D. Cathey, C. S.

W. W. Barnard
H. C. Waddell
J. W. Sluder

North Carolina
Buncombe County

In the matter of the will of J. L. Carroll

affidavts

J. G. Morrison being duly sworn says, the will of the said J. L. Carroll has been read by him & the hand writing carefully noted, affiant has no doubt that the signature to the said the said will itself & every part thereof are the genuine hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll; that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. L. Carroll, after his death.

North Carolina
Buncombe County

In the matter of the will of J. L. Carroll

Probate by Clerk

a paper writing without subscribing witness, purporting to be the last will and Testament of J. L. Carroll, deceased, is exhibited for probate in Open Court by Jacob M. Carroll the executor named therein and it is therupon proved by the oath and examination of J. G. Morrison that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. L. Carroll, after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three other competent and credible witnesses, to wit W. W. Barnard, H. C. Waddell Jr. and J. W. Sluder, that they are acquainted with the hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll, having often seen him write, and doth believe that the name after the said J. L. Carroll subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said J. L. Carroll.

and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last named witnesses that the said hand writing is generally known to the acquaintances of the said J. L. Carroll.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and Testament of the said J. L. Carroll and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

J. D. Cathey
This July 1st, 1895. Clerk Superior Court.