In the name of God, amen.

I Joseph Garvis of the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina being of sound disposing mind and memory but being advanced in age and calling to mind that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make ordain and establish this my last will and Testament in manner and form following: first I commend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a Christian manner, at the direction of my executor nothing doubting but I shall receive it again at the general resurrection by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly substance as it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I dispose of the same as follows, to wit:

First, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Christina all my household & kitchen furniture except one Bureau which belongs to my daughter Sarah, my horse, fifteen head of sheep, fifteen head hogs & three head of cattle and all movable effects for and during her natural life, and after her death to be equally divided among her children.

Secondly, I desire my son Jacob to take my land I bought on Little Sandy Marsh and pay for it and live on the same and maintain my wife Christina and all the family that is unmarried on the above mentioned lands until they be fit to leave home or become of age.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 25th day of May A.D. 1854. Signed Sealed and acknowledged in the presence of,

James Lowrey
