I Eliza G Woodfin of Asheville in the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, declare this to be my last will and testament.

I give devise and bequeath all my estate both real and personal, after paying out of my debts, to my children to be equally divided among them, share and share alike.

And I declare that the shares which my daughters Lily F Jones and Mira M D. Hallam shall take under and by virtue of this will shall be held by the trustees herein named, for the sole and separate use of my said two daughters and that their receipts for personal property or money, notwithstanding their present or any future marriages shall be a valid and effectual discharge of the same.

It is my desire that in case of the death of any of my said children without leaving issue the share of such child of both real and personal property divided under this will shall after the death of such child as aforesaid go to those of my children surviving her to be held by such survivors in like manner as the shares they take directly under this will. I hereby devise and bequeath that portion of said property, real and personal hereinbefore declared, to be for the use and benefit of my two married daughters before named, to-wit Lawrence Pulliam and James M. Pulliam Trustees for the sole and each of said daughters, and that said trustees deal with each of said daughters directly, without regard to the husbands of either in managing said property.

And I hereby authorize the said Trustees, or the survivor to appoint by deed or will their or his successor or successors to carry out the purposes hereinbefore expressed in case of the removal or death of either of them.

I hereby appoint Lawrence Pulliam the executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal This the 3rd day of May A.D. 1876

E. G. Woodfin Seal.

Signed sealed and delivered in the our presence by the testatrix, and subscribed by us as witnesses
