

State of North Carolina / In Superior Court.
Barncombe County, a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Cathcart, late of the city of Philadelphia and state of Pennsylvania, deceased, and being date the 17th day of September 1800; and being before me J. L. Leather, Clerk of the said County of Barncombe, and state of North Carolina, and it appearing that the said last will and testament of the said William Cathcart, deceased, has been duly proved and allowed in the state of Pennsylvania, according to the laws thereof, and that the paper writing now produced, is a true copy or transcription of the said last will and testament of the said William Cathcart, deceased, duly certified and authenticated by the court in which the said last will and testament has been proved and allowed, and it further appearing to the Court, that some of the property of the testator is situated in the County of Barncombe. It is now my duty as M. E. Leather, and Charles A. Moore, attorney for the propounds, considered and advised, by the Court that said paper writing so certified and authenticated and produced before me as a copy of the said last will and testament of the said William Cathcart, deceased, be allowed filed and recorded in the book of wills of Barncombe County.

J. L. Leather
Clerk Superior Court, Barncombe Co.
N.C.

State of North Carolina Barncombe County, Jan 28: 1893.

I Julius Johnson, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the inevitability of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament

First, My Executor hereunto named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first monies which may come into his hand, belonging to my estate.

Second.

I give and devise to my beloved wife Francis Johnson, all of my personal property.

Third.

I give and devise to my beloved wife Francis Johnson, the house and lot in which we now live, situated on the corner of Pine & Poplar Streets in the city of Asheville N.C.

I hereby constitute and appoint my truly friend M. D. Brown my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and every part and clause thereof, truly seeking, and declaring utterly void all other other wills and testaments by me heretofore made, do witness whereof the said Julius Johnson, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 28th day of January, 1893.

Julius Johnson. (Seal)

Signed Seal, published and declared by the said Julius Johnson, to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Witnesses } A. S. Monroe.
 } Henry S. McDiffy

North Carolina
Barncombe

This 26th day of February 1893 M. D. Brown the Executor therein named, proposed the foregoing as the will of Julius Johnson, and A.S. Manna. They, S.

D. Daffy, the Subscribing witnesses thereto, who each being Sworn says, that Julius Johnson, declared published and subscribed the same in their presence, and that they each subscribed the same in his presence and in the presence of each other, as witnesses thereto at his request. It is therefore adjudged that the foregoing, and every part thereof, is the last will, and testament of Julius Johnson, deceased. Enrolled and ordered to be recorded.

J. L. Calkley Clerk.
Black Inferior Court.
Brunswick County N.C.

I, John G. Blount of the town of Washington and Co.
of Beaufort, being of sound and disposing mind memory, desirous of disposing of my real and personal in such manner as to render the property of my Child as nearly equal as possible and at the same time to prevent any misunderstanding among them do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking all others by me made heretofore.
In the first place, I wish all my just debts to be paid as soon as possible, and to enable my Executors to do so, they are hereby authorized and required sell any part of my estate, whether real or personal that they may think proper and in any manner they may deem most to the interest of my estate.
Secondly- I give and bequeath unto my Grand son William Blount Rodman his Executors and Administrators a negro woman Mary and all her children Thirdly- I give and bequeath unto my Grand son William Blount Rodman his Executors and Administrators a negro girl named Louisa Fourthly- I give and bequeath unto my son Thomas Blount his heirs and assigns all the lands, I purchased of Elora and wife, Samuel Young, Thomas Trotter & John Borner near the town of Washington and bounded one side by the public road leading to Bath, by the name of Saw's Lane.
Fifthly- As it is my wish that all my children inherit an equal part of my estate, it is my will desire, that my estate shall be divided by my Executors with six equal parts as near as may be including that property which I have heretofore given to any or all my children estimating said property at its value at the time I give it them.
So my son Thomas Blount, John G. Blount & William Angustus Blount, and to my daughter Lucy Olivia Blount and Patsey Boker Blount, I give and bequeath to each of them, their heirs, Executors & assigns one sixth part and to my Executors herein named their Executors or assigns the remaining one sixth part trust as soon as either William Blount Rodman Mary Marion Rodman or Mary Olivia Rodman (or Children of my daughter Polly Ann Rodman) or the survivor or survivors of them shall arrive at then the one-sixth part of my estate so set apart shall be equally divided among them or the survivors of them.
