State of North Carolina

Buncombe County July 23rd

A. S. Eighteen hundred and eighty four

I Lemuel Dougherty being of sound mind and of disposing memory do make and obtain this my last will and testament.

First, after paying all my just debts, and my funeral expenses, I will and bequeath unto my affectionate wife Emily Dougherty all of my real and personal property. In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal, day and date first above written.

L. Dougherty

G. W. Clement

State of North Carolina In the Probate Court
Buncombe County

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Lemuel Dougherty deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by the execut therein mentioned, and the due recitation thereof by the said Lemuel Dougherty before the oath and examination of S. F. Dougherty & G. W. Clement the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depone and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Lemuel Dougherty; that the said Lemuel Dougherty in the presence of the deponents subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 23rd day of July, 1884.

And the deponent further depone and saith that Lemuel Dougherty, the testator herein named, was at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And the deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as ordered the said Lemuel Dougherty was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any duress to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent.

And further this deponent saith not.

C. S. C.

Buncombe County. In the Superior Court

In the Matter of the Will of S. F. Dougherty Lemuel Dougherty 3 Superior Court Clerk Emily F. Dougherty being duly sworn both say: That Lemuel Dougherty, late of said County, is dead, having first made and published his last will and testament and that no executor is named therein.
Further that the property of the said Lemuel Dougherty, consisting of Chilled Horse Shap & Grain &c is worth about $500 so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application. And that Carist A. Johnson, J. M. Wilson & C.
Goodrich, Emerson M. & Lawson, are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

Emily F. Dougherty

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 20 day of Sept 1884

C. S. C.
Before the Clerk.

North Carolina,
Buncombe County.

A paper of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Lemuel Dougherty deceased was presented for probate in the Court and was thereupon proved by the oath and examination of S. F. Dougherty and G. W. Clements the subscribing witnesses thereto, and upon their oath and examination due probate of said will was had according to law.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Lemuel Dougherty deceased, and the same with the examination of the aforementioned witnesses and this certificate are ordered to be recorded and that this the 9th day of November, 1908.

Marion Erwin,
Clerk Superior Court.
