

same by first paying his debts - and then his legacies, as far as the said estate shall extend, or the law will charge me, and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me, and according to law; So help me God.
W^m R. Whitson

Sworn and subscribed before me this 3rd day of April 1894
J. L. Gentry
Clerk Superior Court

To the Surrogate of the County of Essex.

John P. Hunt, the executor, named in the last will and testament of Louis M. Price late of the City of Newark in the County of Essex, and State of New-Jersey, deceased, herby applies for the probate of said last will and shows: That the next of kin, and heirs at law of said Louis M. Price together with their respective residences or last office address, so far as the same are known or this applicant has been able to ascertain, are as follows:

Sarah A. Price	Mother	} Newark New Jersey
James B. "	Brother
Frederick H. "	"
Frank L. "	"
Lizzie H. Barry	Sister
Katherine W. Hunt	"

J. P. Hunt.

Essex County, N. J.

John P. Hunt above named being duly sworn on his oath says that the statements in the foregoing application for probate of Will made are true.

J. P. Hunt,
Sworn before me Oct. 16th 1893.
J. B. Durenberry
Surrogate.

Newark, New Jersey, February 26th 1890
I Louis M. Price of Newark Essex County in the State of New-Jersey hereby make this my Will.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral Expenses, I hereby give and bequeath my entire estate, both real and personal to be equally divided between my sisters, Lizzie H.
Barry and Katherine W. Hunt, their heirs and assigns forever.

This twenty eighth day of February, A.D. 1890.

Linus M. Price

Signed and published as his last will and testament by the said Linus M. Price, in the presence of us, who in his presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names, as Witnesses

Cosser Adams.

H. W. Flannagan.

This twentieth day of July, A.D. 1893,

I being weak and decrepit, this my codicil to my last will of February 26th A.D. 1890,

Any interest in the estate of my late beloved uncle Linus M. Mearns under his will which at my death shall become a part of my estate shall be treated and used as directed in my will aforesaid and divided, when liquidated, equally between my two Sisters mentioned in my will their heirs and assigns forever. I hereby direct that my executor may hold any mining or other stocks that may be a part of my estate ten (10) years, before selling same and may divide said stocks equally between the legatees.

I hereby appoint John P. Groot my executor and affirm that no Bond be required of him

Signed This twentieth day of July A.D. 1893.

Linus M. Price

The interlined words
"Executor may" were written before execution.
Witness

C. E. Graham

J. F. Graham

On the Matter of the Will of Rebecca Baird

Thos. F. Davidson, being duly sworn doth say: That Rebecca Baird late of said County is dead, having first made and published his last will and testament and that he is the Executor named therein. Further that the property of said Rebecca Baird, consisting of notes, bonds and open accounts, and household property, is worth about $3300.00 so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application, and that the funeral lodge of Masons, of the State of North Carolina, Post Office Raleigh, N.C. and the Pastors of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Albemarle, Chapel Bluncombe County, N.C. Post Office Albemarle, N.C. are the parties named under said will to receive of said property.

Thos. F. Davidson
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 22nd day of May 1894,

J. L. Carthy C.S.C.

State of North Carolina & in the Superior Court Bluncombe County & proper proceedings to be the last will and testament of Rebecca Baird, and is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Thos. F. Davidson, the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Rebecca Baird, is shown by the oath and examination of J. M. Morrison, and J. M. Johnson, the subscribing Witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth before and each for himself depose and swear, that he is the subscribing Witness to the proper writing now shown to be the last will and testament of the said Rebecca Baird