Severally sworn and subscribed this 3rd day of July 1886
J. E. Rind
Judge Probate

North Carolina
Buncombe County.

I, Lula M Brookshire, of Buncombe County and state of North Carolina impressed with the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, desiring to dispose of my property by will, while in the enjoyment of all my mental faculties, do make, publish, and declare the following as my last will and testament as follows.

- 1st. I will and devise unto my husband James M Brookshire all my real estate, consisting of about Three Hundred and six acres of land situated on Swannanoa river in said County adjoining the lands of John Cheseboro, Thos Wood, and others, being the portion of my father's estate allotted to me by Commissioners appointed to divide the lands of my father, after his death, among his children and heirs at law. I desire that my said husband Jas. M Brookshire shall have use and possess the real estate above mentioned and which is all I own only so long as he shall remain unmarried after my death. And in the event that he shall re-marry after my death, then I will and desire that said land shall immediately become the property of such of my brothers and sisters as shall at such time be living, to be divided equally between them. In other words I will and desire for my said husband James M Brookshire to use, occupy and enjoy said real estate just so long after my death as he shall remain single, and no longer, and if after my death he should again marry, I will and desire that all my estate of whatever kind or description immediately become the property of my brothers and sisters then living, to be equally divided among them. Witness my hand and seal this 11th day of February 1887.

Lula M Brookshire Real

in the presence of each other, and at her request, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Chas W. Malone,
Joe T. Devier
