In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah A. Thayer, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court, by Chas. A. Moore, in whose favor said Sarah A. Thayer, the husband of the said Sarah A. Thayer deceased, has renounced his right, to letters of administration upon the estate of the said Sarah A. Thayer, and it is therefore proven by the oath and examination of the said Chas. A. Moore, that the said will was found among the valuable papers, and effects of the said Sarah A. Thayer, after the death, and it is further proved by the oath of three competent and credible witnesses Chas. A. Moore, J. B. Alexander and L. P. McLeod, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of said Sarah A. Thayer, and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of said Sarah A. Thayer.

It is therefore concluded and adjudged by the Court, that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Sarah A. Thayer, and the same is now hereby ordered to be recorded and filed
