I know all men by these presents, that this is my last will and Testament, of my property, both real and personal, as follows. My desire for giving it is as follows. I have not got very much, and I have been sick and required a heap of attention, and expense to my friends, and I feel it my duty to provide for the care I have received and I don't want what little I have to be disturbed after I am gone. My interest and part of this land I now live on which is one half, I Margaret Duckett both by these presents give my son Edward J. Duckett all my part of the land for his trouble and expense of taking care of me and he is to pay the Doctor bills, &c. and all my personalty. I give to my said son Edward J. and daughter Sarah, to have equally both the same. I have given all my children that is married and left me all that I have to divide.
