State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court County of Buncombe } Before J. L. Cuthay Clerk

A paper purporting to be the lost will and testament of Mrs. Marianne R.
Tennenent, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Samuel

S. Tennenent who is her husband mentioned in said lost will and testament and the due execution thereof by the said Marianne R. Tennenent was proven by the oath & examination of Samuel S. Tennenent, James G. Martin, Anna H.
Martin and J. A. Tennenent who each for himself and for himself states before me on oath that each verily believes such will, and every part thereof is in the hand writing, and signed by the said Mrs. Marianne R. Tennenent. Whose will it purports to be, and whose name is written therein, and the said Samuel S. Tennenent and the said Anna H. Martin each for himself & as her self doth state further before me on oath that such will was found by them among the valuable papers and effects of the decedent to wit: in an envelope with other valuable papers in her parrot desk at her home in Asheville, North Carolina, on or about the 7th day of May, 1892, that the said Marianne R. Tennenent, died at Columbia South Carolina, on the 4th day of May 1892 that the said will is a holograph will and bears date the third day of Sept. 1871 and purports to have been made at Lenoir North Carolina, and that no executor is named therein; that at the time of making the said will the said Marianne R.
Tennenent was and continued to be up to a short time before her death of sound mind & memory, of full age & competent a will, to wit: Forty Years of age, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of these affidavits; and all of the deponents named above each for himself and herself doth state before me on oath that the said Samuel S. Tennenent is the proper person entitled to letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the estate of the said Mrs. Marianne R. Tennenent, by reason the fact that he is the decedent husband and next of kin, and that no Executor was appointed by said will all of said defendants say further, on oath before me that the value of the real estate of the said Mrs. Marianne R. Ternent did not exceed $1800 - and the value of the personal property does not exceed $250 so far as can be ascertained, at the date of this application, and that Samuel S. Ternent her husband, and Annie Martin Ternent, her daughter, aged eight years and nine months, both of whom reside at Asheville, North Carolina, are the names and residences of all the persons entitled to testator's property, of whom, the said Annie Martin Ternent is a minor aged 8 years and 9 months, who is without a guardian specially sworn to and subscribed before me

State of North Carolina } Before the Clerk of Buncombe County } the Superior Court

In the matter of the will of Marianne R. Ternent, described upon the exhibits to me of the foregoing holograph will of Mrs. Marianne R. Ternent, duly probated by the oath and examination of Samuel S. Ternent, J. G. Martin, J. A.
Ternent, and Anna H. Martin. It is alleged, and declared, that the said holograph will be admitted to probate in this office, and that the same be recorded as the last will and testament of Mrs. Marianne R. Ternent and no Executor having been appointed by the said will, and Samuel S.
Ternent, being the husband of the said Testator, and a suitable person and having entered into a good and sufficient bond with two sureties in the sum of $500, and having subscribed and taken the oaths required by law in such cases made and provided. Therefore I, J. L. Cootay, Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe Co. N.C.
