In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be a copy of the Last Will and Testament of William Cathcart, late of the City of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, deceased, and bearing date the 17th day of September, 1805, is exhibited before me, J. L. Kathy, Clerk of the Superior Court in and for the said County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, and it appearing that the said Last Will and Testament of said William Cathcart, deceased, has been duly proven and allowed in the said State of Pennsylvania according to the laws thereof and that the paper writing now produced is a true copy or exemplification of the said Last Will and Testament of the said William Cathcart, deceased, duly certified and authenticated by the Court in which the said Last Will and Testament has been proven and allowed, and it further appearing to the Court that some of the property of the testator is situate in the County of Buncombe, it is now in motion of Messrs. H. C. Carter and Charles A. Moore, attorneys for the propounders, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing so certified and authenticated and produced before
