

I, Mary Katharine Cartland, of Asheville, Buncombe County and State of North Carolina, do make this my last will and testament, having, and being any and all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I give, bequeath and devise to my husband, James Cartland, all my personal and real property of every description, located in the County of Henderson, State of North Carolina, as well as all other property of every description or of every kind I may die possessed in the said State of North Carolina, as where-ever else located, to hold the same to him and to his heirs and assigns forever.

I also give, bequeath and devise to my husband, James Cartland, all the property real and personal which I have inherited from the estate of my father, James C. Child, said estate being located in the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, to have and to hold the same to him and to his heirs and assigns forever.
I am to take and appoint my husband, James Cartland, executor of this will without requirement of bond.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at the City of Asheville, Buncombe County, State of North Carolina, the twenty eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty & v.

(Mary Katharine Cartland read) Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mary Katharine Cartland, the testator, as her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, and the presence of each of her, have here-unto subscribed our names as witnesses.

J. M. K. Field Cartland
Laura C. Mottow,

Baltimore S. S.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Katharine Cart-land, deceased, is exhibited before me.
The undersigned, a Notary Public of the State of Maryland do and for, by James Cartland the executor therein mentioned, and the true execution thereof by the said Mary Katharine Cartland by the oath and examination of Laura C. Mottow one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that she is subscribing witness to the paper purporting now shown her, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Katharine Cartland, that the said Mary Katharine Cartland, in the presence of this Deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing which now shown as afore said, and which bears date of the 18th day of October, 1884.

And the Deponent further saith, that the said Mary Katharine Cartland the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name, as afore said, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this Deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this Deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as afore said, and at the time of Deponent's subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto, as afore said, the said Mary Katharine Cartland was of sound mind and memory, of full age, to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the contrary.

deponent's information or belief of this deponent, and further that this deponent says, not.

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Katharine Cortland, deceased, is exhibited before me & I, Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, in the State of North Carolina, by James Cortland, the executor thereof, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of S. C. Cortland that Laura C. Norton, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, resides out of the State of North Carolina, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said S. C. Cortland that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Laura C. Norton, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Laura C. Norton subscribed as a witness to said will is in the proper handwriting of the said Laura C. Norton and genuine, and that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said testator, the said Mary Katharine Cortland, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Mary Katharine Cortland subscribed to said will, as the testatrix therein, is in the proper handwriting of the said Mary Katharine Cortland and genuine, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of J. H. Keefe Cortland that Laura C. Norton, one of the subscribing witnesses to the said will, resides out of the State of North Carolina, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said J. H. Keefe Cortland that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Laura C. Norton, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Laura C. Norton subscribed as a witness to said will is in the proper handwriting of the said Laura C. Norton and genuine, and that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said testator, the said Mary Katharine Cortland, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Mary Katharine Cortland subscribed to said will, as the testatrix therein, is in the proper handwriting of the said Mary Katharine Cortland and genuine, and no undue execution of said will by the said Mary Katharine Cortland is duly proved by the oath and examination of J. H. Keefe Cortland, that the said subscribing witnesses thereto, who being by me duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper writing aforesaid now shown to him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Katharine Cortland; that the said Mary Katharine Cortland subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown to him, as aforesaid, and which he read to the 19th day of October 1886. And the said deponent J. H. Keefe Cortland further saith that the said Mary Katharine Cortland, the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of her subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by her and so exhibited, to be her last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon sub-son both his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix and also in the presence of said J. H. Norton, the other subscribing witness thereto, and that at the same time the said said J. H. Norton subscribed his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix and also in the presence of the said Dependent J. Wakefield Cartland. And the Dependent, the said J. Wakefield Cartland, further saith, that at the time when the said Testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time that the said Dependent J. Wakefield Cartland subscribed his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary Hatharine Cartland was of sound mind and memory, of full age, competent and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information and belief of the said Dependent J. Wakefield Cartland.

In re the will of Mary Hatharine Cartland, Deceased,

J. James Cartland do swear that I believe this paper writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Mary Hatharine Cartland, Deceased, and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying her debts, and thus her legacies as far as the said estate shall extend and the law will charge me and that I will do so and faithfully execute the office of executor agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me and according to law. So help me God.
