Sweareth to me and subscribe before me 23rd day of May 1894 J. L. Estes Esq. C.

State of North Carolina County of Buncombe

I, Rebecca Baird, widow of Joseph C. Baird, and now residing at Abbeville in the State and County aforesaid, hereby making all other bequests made by me, do make and publish this my last will and testament: First: I direct that my body be buried under the grave of my husband in the cemetery at Abbeville Chapel.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, and property of every kind whatever to my friend Thos. A. Dobiday in special trust and confidence, to be owned held and employed by him for the following uses, and purposes and none other: (1) After the payment of my funeral expenses, and any debts & may owe, to purchase and erect over my grave a suitable monument or tablet, upon which shall be engraved the date of my birth, and death and my name; (2) The rest and residue of my estate shall be securely invested in such way as will produce the best and most regular income. If it is found practicable & proper, and direct that the investment shall be upon real estate, security, this however I leave to the sound discretion of my trustee, herein before named; (3) The income arising from five hundred Dollars, of the principal thus invested shall be annually applied to keeping in good condition, the grave and monuments thereof, of my husband and myself, and if after this is done, there shall remain, an part of the income from the said five hundred dollars, I direct it shall be paid to the trustees or other proper person, having charge of Eliza Chepke for the support, and maintenance, of the Abbeville Academy and appurtenances of the said Abbeville Chapel.

(4) The income arising from the residue & my estate I direct shall annually be paid to the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, to be by it faithfully applied as far as it will go, to the maintenance and education of the Oxford Orphan Asylum or some orphan child or children of this state. Should the Oxford Asylum ever fail from the management of the Grand Lodge of Masons, and it should not be able to obtain an other for the said general purpose, I direct that the income thereby appropriated to the Oxford Asylum, shall be paid to that institution which is under the control of said Grand Lodge of Masons; and the event the said Grand Lodge shall ever establish a branch or independent Asylum for Orphans in Western North Carolina, I desire that this bequest be appropriated to such institution.

and I further request that as far as is practicable, the other ~~other~~ ^{written} part of the state patently from the County of Blencombe shall be the recipients of this devise.

(5) & for any reason the execution of this will in respect to the devises to Alexander Chapel, or the Grand Lodge of Masons should fail or become impossible. I direct that the income so arising, shall be applied to the education of some worthy and intelligent child, or children of Blencombe County, to be selected by the said trustee, at such institution of learning as he may select.

I hereby appoint the said Theodore A. Davidson, the executor of this will.

In testimony whereof I have signed my hand, and seal this the thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Rebecca Baird

The foregoing will was at the date thereof, signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Rebecca Baird as and for her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names, as witnesses thereto:

J. S. Morrison.
J. M. Johnson.

With witness

Blencombe County. In the Superior Court it is therefore caused, and adjudged by the court, that the said paper writing and any part thereof is the last will and testament of Rebecca Baird died, and the same with the foregoing nomination and this certificate are ordered to be recorded and filed, and therefore Thos. F. Doviden the executor therein named is duly qualified by taking the oaths required. This 2nd day of May A.D. 1894

North Carolina. Blencombe County. To the Superior Court.

In re the Will of Rebecca Baird, deceased.
Thos. F. Doviden, being duly sworn says that he believes the paper writing now produced, in Count purporting to be the last will and testament of Rebecca Baird, deceased, dated the 31st day of January 1890, and attested by W. S. Morrison and J. M. Johnson, to be and contain the last will and testament of the said Rebecca Baird, and that he will well and truly execute the same by first paying the debts and then the legacies, so far as the said estate shall extend, or the law shall charge; and that he will faithfully and honestly execute the office of executor, according to the true and correct understanding in him and according to law.
