Last Will and Testament of Sarah Ann Calloway

In the name of God, Amen.

I Sarah Ann Calloway, of the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina do make, publish, and declare this as my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following

I give and devise all my real estate, consisting of a lot of land in Charleston, South Carolina and a lot in the Town of Asheville North Carolina to my daughter Mary Catharine, for and during her natural life, as a sole and separate estate distinct from the estate of any and every husband that she may hereafter marry not to be subject to his control, nor liable to the payment of any of his debts, and after her death to her children, equally to be divided between them

I give the one half of my personal estate remaining after the payment of my debts and funeral charges, to my said daughter Mary Catharine, and the other half to my sister, Nancy Wilson, if she be living at my death, but if she be then dead, then I give the said half to my said daughter Mary Catharine

I do hereby appoint my said daughter Mary Catharine sole executrix of this Will hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I, the said Sarah Ann Calloway, have hereunto set my hand and seal this seventeenth day of January 1884

Sarah Ann ^{her}Calloway ^{mark}

Signed, declared and published by the above named Sarah Ann Calloway, as for her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto

Last Will and Testament Caroline M. Rogers

In the name of God, Amen

I Caroline M. Rogers, of the City of Asheville, County of Buncombe, State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and mindful of the uncertainty of human life do make this my last will and Testament. It is my desire to equalize my property, some of my heirs already having had a great proportion of my property. My Grand son Samuel W. Stiles has become heir by his Mother's death, to more valuable household effects than any one other Grand Child, therefore he will not receive any distribution of such. In the first place I devise my valuables to my oldest daughter, Anna M. West the oil portraits of her great Grand Parents, also of her Grand Parent Oliver Woodford, also oil paintings Madonna, my real silver tea service, consisting of five pieces, I also give and bequeath her my Parlor furniture same as in my front parlor in Savannah, Carpets, Curtains, vases, excepting bible and table on which it rests, French Clock also excepted. I give and bequeath to my said daughter Anna M. West ~~my~~ ^{my} ~~tidies~~ ^{tidies}, ~~brandy~~, wine, ~~codor~~, ~~and dining table~~, ~~in my dining room~~. Secondly I give and bequeath to my daughter Mrs. G. H. Grant the old oil painting of her Grand father Rogers. I give and bequeath to her the silver ware presented to me by Mr. Nagasli. To the same, I give my large bible (given by the Church, and table on which it rests. To the same, I give my parlor furniture which was in my middle parlor in Savannah (except secretary and piano.) also to said daughter
