I, John Carpenter, of the town of Leicesters, in the County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, declare this to be my last will and testament First, I give and devise all my real and personal estate of what nature or kind so ever, to my sister Mrs.
Sarah St. Chapman and her two sons, Charles and Frank Chap man my executors hereinafter appointed, in trust, for the execution of my will, with power to sell and dispose of the same at public or private sale at such times, and upon such terms, and in such manner as to them shall seem meet, and I direct that the proceeds of any all sales made by virtue hereof as well as any debts or other property that may come into their hands shall be disposed of as follows; the interest and income thereof shall be paid to my two sisters Sarah St. Chapman and Eliza Corati in equal shares for and during the term of their natural lives, the surviving sister to have the share and part intended for the other during her natural life. Upon the death of the surviving sister, I direct that all the residue of my estate shall be equally divided between the then living children of my said two sisters so that each child shall have an equal portion thereof. In case either one or any of my said executors shall die before the final distribution of my said property, I empower the survivor or survivors to carry out this will as fully as if such survivor or survivors had been originally named as the sole executor or executors of this will.

Of course my funeral expenses and all my just debts should I unfortunately leave any, are first to be paid before any distribution of my property -

Second, I hereby appoint my said sister Sarah H.
Chapman and her said two sons Charley and Frank Chapman, executors of this my last will and testament and I hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I John Carpenter, have to this my last will and testament consisting of two sheets of typewritten paper, subscribed my name, and set my seal this the 30th day of September 1891.
