Susanah DeBoule of Grantville, Rowan County, and State of North Carolina, widow of George DeBoule do hereby make this my last will and testament

I give devise and bequeath my estate and property real and personal as follows:
That is to say:

My real estate consisting of one small tract herein or parcel of land on Big Dry at Grantville in Rowan County and State of North Carolina, I forming the lands of James Deasbrook, River Raney other folks mill tract as once be shown by deed to said land now fully described to my two daughters Henrietta DeBoule and Lina DeBoule, and in case Lina DeBoule dies then the said land to go to Henrietta DeBoule and her children forever. My reason for willing and devising my land to my daughters Henrietta Lina & to Henrietta children is this, that they are unprovided for. I consider my two sons W. C. DeBoule and George DeBoule to be able to take care of themselves, as well as my daughter Susan Davis, who has a husband, to look after her wife, and make this my dying request that my two sons Calender & George other wives, and Frank Davis and wife Susan accede to this my last will and testament, and aid their two sisters Henrietta and Lina in their struggle for bread in this life as well as Henrietta's poor little children, and my dying request is that my children each be kind to one another and help one another. I appoint S. D. Deaver, of Madison County State of North Carolina a farmer by trade executor of this my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto signed and sealed this willbook as my last will at Grantville on the 17th day of December 1894
