

Be it Remembered That I Theodore Hendry, of the City of Philadelphia, free Dealer, being of sound disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do hereby make and ordain, this my last Will and Testament, in manner following: that is to say:

Item: I order and direct all my just debts and funeral expenses, to be fully paid and satisfied so soon as conveniently can be after my decease.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my dear Wife, Susanah Hendry, all my household furniture, Silver Ware and house keeping utensils for her own use absolutely forever, and direct that no inventory be made thereof:

Item: I give and bequeath to my Daughter Helen C. Stokes, the sum of One thousand dollars, absolutely for her own use, to be paid her immediately on my decease.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Theodore A. Hendry Junior the sum of One thousand dollars, absolutely for his own use, to be paid him immediately on my decease.

Item: I give and bequeath the sum of Five thousand dollars, unto and to be equally divided between my nephews &

Daughters to wit: Ida, Elizabeth Erwin, Wife of A. F. Erwin Harriet Estelle Hendry, William Cornell Hendry, and Frank Fern Hendry, children of my deceased Brother Crouch C.
Hendry, to be paid to them immediately upon my decease, for their own absolute use forever.

Item: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, Real, personal, and mixed, Whosoever and Wherever, of Which I may, die seized interested are entitled to I give, devise and bequeath unto my Executors, hereinafter named, and the survivors of them to hold the same in trust nevertheless, to invest and keep the same invested, as hereinafter directed, to collect the rents interests and income thereof, and to paying thereout all taxes and charges to the Real Estate, and deducting therefrom all reasonable and proper costs, to pay the net income thereof semi-annually, to my said dear Wife Susanah Hendry, for and during all the time of her natural life, if she so long remain my widow unmarried, her receipt at all times to be a sufficient discharge, for said payments; and from and immediately after the decease or marriage of my said Wife, whichever event should first happen, then in trust for the following uses, and purposes, that is to say, In trust as to one half of said net income, to pay the same in equal semi-annual payments, unto my said Daughter Helen C. Stokes, Wife of Thomas Stokes, for and during the term of her natural life but never by anticipation, and so that the same shall not be accisible to any husband of the said Helen C. Stokes, her receipt to be at all times a sufficient discharge, for such payments, And in trust as to the remaining one half part of said net income: to pay half of the same in equal semi-annual payments, unto my Daughter in law Mary Hendry Wife of my said son Theo A. Hendry Jr. for and during the term of her natural life if she long remain the wife or widow of my said son, Theodore A. Hendry, Jr. but said payments shall never be made by way of anticipation, or so that the same shall be accisible to her said husband and her receipt at all times to be a sufficient discharge thereof, and to pay the other half of said remaining one half part of said net income in equal semi-annual payments, unto my said son Theodore A. Hendry Jr. for and during the term of his natural life, and never by way of anticipation, and so that the same shall not be accisible to any creditor, assignee, or mortgagee of my said son, his receipt at all times to be a sufficient discharge for said payments, And from and immediately after the decease of my said Daughter, Helen C.

Stokes, without leaving any child or children the issue of any deceased child, then having her one half share of the said net income of my said estate, shall be paid over to my son the said Theodore A. Hendry Jr. during his natural life in the same manner as above & pursued, as to his own share of said income, and from and after the decease of my said daughter or law Mary A. Hendry, without leaving any child or children by her husband the said Theodore A. Hendry Jr. or the issue of any such child deceased, her one quarter share of the said net income of my said estate, shall be paid over to my said son Theodore A. Hendry Jr. for and during the term of his natural life in the same manner as above & pursued, as to his own share of said income, and if my said son Theodore be not then living, the same shall be paid to my daughter the said Helen C. Stokes, for and during the term of her natural life, in the same manner as above & pursued, as to her own share of said income and from and after the decease of my said son, the said Theodore A. Hendry Jr. without leaving any child or children or the issue of any deceased child, then living his share of the said net income of my said estate, shall be paid over to my daughter, the said Helen C. Stokes, during the term of her natural life, in the same way and manner as above & pursued, as to her own share of said income and from and immediately after the decease of my daughter the said Helen C. Stokes, or my son the said Theodore A. Hendry Jr. during any child or children or the issue of any deceased child or children, or after the decease of my daughter or law the said Mary Hendry, leaving any child or children by her said husband Theodore A. Hendry, Jr. or the issue of such child deceased, then trust and I do give and devise and bequeath, the principal of the share of the work so ~~devising~~ unto and to be equally divided between all my grandchildren living at the time of the decease of either the said Helen C. Stokes, Theodore A. Hendry Jr. or Mary Hendry, and the children of either of my grand children as shall then be deemed their heirs & executors, administrators and assigns. It being my desire, that my grand children shall take between them per capita, and not per stirpes, and that any children of a deceased grand child, shall take equally between them the share of his, her, or their deceased parents, and in the event of their being no grand children or the children of deceased grandchildren, living at the decease of the survivor of the said Helen C. Stokes, and Theodore A. Hendry, Jr. I do give devise and bequeath the said net, residue and remainder, of my estate unto my right heirs, in such way and manner, as though I had died seized and possessed thereof intestate unmarried without issue.

Item, I do hereby authorize and empower my Executors, hereafter named who are also hereby constituted trustees, other or such executors, or Trustees or both, of my said Will, for the purpose of carrying out the object purposes trusts and conditions of my said Will, for the payment of my just debts, or for such other purposes as my said Executors, and trustees shall deem expedient, to sell and dispose of absolutely in fee simple or for any less estate, all or any part of my real or personal estate, of which I am seized or of which my Executors, or Trustees shall by reason of this my Will become seized, either at public or private sale, to such person or persons for such prices, or considerations for cash or on credit as they may deem proper, and with or without the revocation of any bonds, rents, or rents, and so invest the proceeds thereof, or of any securities belonging to my estate, or held by my Executors or Trustees, that may be paid off in good bonds, rents, or Mortgages, or in such other personal securities, as they in their discretion shall deem for the interest of my estate, and in making such investments, they shall not be continued to and as are known as legal

1890 Asheville N.C. April 27th I Mary Dobbin being in sound mind, and having my good sense, make this my last will and testament:
Out of my real estate and personal property,
I want all of my just debts settled.

I owe Mrs. Elyza Morgan ($35.49) of borrowed money which must be paid, and all such other just claims as may be presented against my estate After all these debts are paid. I want the same equally divided between my daughter Nellie Dobbin, and my son Robert Dobbin,

And I appoint as my administrator J. S. Morrow, who will settle of all accounts, against the estate and collect all for it.

Before the Clerk.
On the Supin Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Dobbin deceased, is produced before the undersigned Clerk of the Supin Court of Buncombe County by J. S. Morrow the Executor therein named, and the one execution thereof by the said Mary Dobbin, is proved by the oath and Examination of him to be the last will of him duly sworn with before and say and ask for being deponee and saith, that she is subscribing within to the paper writing now shown her, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Dobbin. That the said Mary Dobbin in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as foregoing and which bears date of April 27th 1894 and the deponent further saith that the said Mary Dobbin, the testator foregoing, did at the time of subscribing her name as foregoing, declare the said paper writing to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to said last will as foregoing and at the time of deponent subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto as foregoing, the said Mary Dobbin was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent, and
