This twentieth day of July A.D. 1893,

I being weak and decrepit this day come to my last will of February 26th A.D. 1890,

Any interest in the estate of my late beloved wife Eliza Linus M. Price under his will which at my death shall become a part of my estate shall be treated and used as directed in my will aforesaid and divided, when liquidated, equally between my two Sisters mentioned in my will their heirs or assigns forever. I hereby direct that my executor may hold any mining or other stocks that may be a part of my estate ten (10) years, before selling same and may divide said stocks equally between the legatees.

I hereby appoint John P. Greet my Executor and advise that no Bond be required of him Signed this twentieth day of July A.D. 1893.

On the matter of the will of ^{of} Rebecca Baird

Superior Court
County of Lincoln
State of North Carolina

Thos. F. Davidson, being duly sworn doth say: That Rebecca Baird late of said County is dead, having first made and published his last will and testament and that he is the Executor named therein. Further that the property of said Rebecca Baird, consisting of notes, bonds and open accounts, and household property, is worth about $3300.00 so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application, and that the funeral Lodge of Masons, of the State of North Carolina, Post Office Raleigh, N.C. and the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church South of Albemarle, Chapel Pinecombe County, N.C. Post Office Albemarle, N.C. are the parties named under said will to inure of said property.

Thos. F. Davidson

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 23rd day of May 1894,

J. L. Carthy C.S.C.

State of North Carolina & in the Superior Court Pinecombe County & proper proceedings to be the last will and testament of Rebecca Baird, and is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Thos. F. Davidson, the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Rebecca Baird, is proven by the oath and examination of D. A. Morrison and J. H. Johnson, the subscribing Witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn doth before and say, and each for himself doth affirm and swear, that he is the subscribing Witness to the proper writing now shown to be the last will and testament of the said Rebecca Baird

The testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this defendant did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto: and at the request and in the presence of said testator and this defendant further saith that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of defendant subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Rebecca Baird was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information, or belief of this defendant: and further than aforesaid, say, note:

Rebecca Baird, Widow of Joseph C. Baird, and now residing at Aberdeen in the State and County aforesaid, hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me, do make and publish this my last will and testament: First: I direct that my body be buried in the grave of my husband in the Cemetery at Aberdeen Chapel.

Second: I give devise and bequeath all my estate, and property of every kind whatsoever to my friend Theodor F. Dobidman, in special trust and confidence, to be owned held and employed by him for the following uses, and purposes and none other: (1) After the payment of my general expenses, and any debts I may owe, to purchase and erect over my grave a suitable monument or tablet, upon which shall be engraven the date of my birth, and death and my name: (2) The net and residue of my estate shall be securely invested in such way as will produce the best and most regular income, if it is found practicable & proper, and direct that the investment shall be upon real estate, Security, This however I leave to the sound discretion of my trustee, herein before named, (3) The income arising from five hundred dollars, of the principal thus invested shall be annually applied to keeping in good condition, the graves and monuments thereof of my husband and myself, and if after this is done there shall remain, a part of the income from the said five hundred dollars, I direct it shall be paid to the trustees or other proper persons, having charge of the Chapel for the repair, support, and maintenance, of the building, endowments and appurtenances of the said Aberdeen Chapel.

(4) The income arising from the remainder of my estate I direct shall annually be paid to the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, to be by it faithfully applied as far as it will go, to the maintenance and education of the Orphan Asylum of some orphan child or children of this State: Should the Grand Lodge ever fail from the management of the Grand Lodge of Masons, and it should not wish or obtain an order for the said general purpose, I direct that the income hereby appropriated to the Orphan Asylum, shall be paid to that institution, which is under the control of said Grand Lodge of Masons; and the event the said Grand Lodge shall ever establish a branch or independent Asylum for Orphans in Western North Carolina, I desire that this bequest shall be appropriated to such institution:
