In the name of God. Amen! I John Kelly of Camden County and state of North Carolina, being of sound mind & knowing that I have to do, think proper to make this my last will & Testament - commencing with resigning my soul to God that I go with a full hope in my redemption and as to my mortal goods, I give and bequeath as follows.

I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Nancy, the use of one half of the plantation, wherein I now live, beginning at the North end at the Swamp, & running northerly the width of the plantation, say all to the eastward of the Mill, until it comes half way or includes one half the said lands, with the use of Rail Timber and firewood off of any of my land to support the same, likewise I give her the use of one half of my mill, until January, eighteen hundred & thirty two, should she live so long, and after that period one third part of the mill during her natural life which is understood to be the case with the plantation.

Likewise I give her the choice of two beds & furniture, one green chest, one trunk her choice of two tables, six chairs all the Crickets & Glass ware, and all the kitchen furniture, one Loom, one spinning wheel, one bay mare, two cows & calves her choice, one dry steer, four sheep, seven dry hogs her choice two breeding sows, eight sheats her choice, all the poultry, all the crop of flax & two hundred weight rough cotton. One half the present crop of corn & peas, one plough her choice, with harrow, two hoes, one ax, one meat stand & two barrels in the smoke house.

I give and bequeath to my son James the half of the plantation I live on at the north end to be divided by a direct line between him and his mother, and twenty five acres of Juniper Swamp, one small house, to him & his heirs forever - Likewise one half of the mills and my lake land to him & his heirs forever -

Item. I give to my son Edwin Baxter, the half of my plantation, given to his mother, that is after her death, and likewise the half of the mills, after January, eighteen hundred & thirty two, he allowing his mother, the one half of his half during her life - likewise twenty five acres of Juniper Swamp, one half of my lake land to him & his heirs forever - and should either of my sons die, without heir legally begotten, the survivor to take the property devised to them both -

Item. I give to my daughters Betty, Peggy, Belinda, & Nancy all the remainder of my property real & personal to be equally divided among them, with the exception of one dollar to be paid by my executor out of my property to my daughter Sally Carle, with this use, should either of the four first mentioned daughters die without lawful issue, that share of the property to be equally divided among the other three, and so on in rotation with the girls - It is to be understood that if my property to be collected by my executor falls short of paying my just debts that the residue shall be paid out of the part devised to my four first mentioned daughters. And lastly I leave my trusty friend, George Beebe Esqr my sole executor to this my last will and Testament revoking all other wills, heretofore made, In testimony whereof I set my hand & seal this 1. Oct 1822.
