

In the name of God amen, I Lemuel Jones of the State of Carolina and the county of Camden, being of sound mind and memory and calling to mind the uncertainty of Life and the certainty of Death, do make this my last will and testament in way and manner following, to wit, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary, one bed and furniture her choice, one beaufatt and crockery which it contains, two hogs her choice and one cow and calf her choice, to her and her heirs forever. I also leave the use of negro Dhepe to her during her natural life—

I give and bequeath unto my son Josiah Jones the plantation which I bought of Samuel Sumblin, and also seven acres of the wood-land atched to the land where I now live to be set of from the north end of this tract of Land to him and his heirs forever, with the exception of two and fifty dollars to be paid out of said lands to my daughter Chloe Jones to her and her heirs forever—

I give and bequeath unto my daughter Chloe Jones the plantation which I now live and negro Dhepe reserving the use of her to my wife to her and her heirs forever with exception two hundred and fifty dollars to be paid out of said lands to my daughter Chloe Jones to her and her heirs forever—

I leave the residue of my estate not already given away to be sold for six months credit and after paying of just debts the balance I give and bequeath unto my daughter Chloe Jones to her and her heirs forever, I also nominate and appoint my son Josiah Jones and my friend Reading Brackett Executors to this my last will and Testament, This 1st day of July 1824 Signed, Sealed & the presents of Lemuel ^{his} Jones
Witness Tho^s. Fillett Junr

Elijah S. Staples

Josiah Jones qual^d

pd 30f

Camden County Court February Term 1825

This was exhibited in open court and proved as the last will and testament of Lemuel Jones and by the oath of Thomas Fillett a subscribing witness thereto in due form of law, and Josiah Jones one of the Executors therein named appeared, and qualified as executor thereto— Ordered that letters testamentary issue &c.

Teste

State of Carolina Camden County, June 4th 1824 I, Joseph Morris do hereby make my last will and testament, first of all I reamend my soul to God, who give it me and my body to the earth, from whence it came, and as trusting such worldly good and as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give in the following manner, to wit—

I leave the use of all my land and plantation to gather with all my stock of hogs, hogs, sheep and cattle, House-hold and Kitchen furniture and one negro woman Giny and girl

Gin's daughter unto Dianah Smith for and during her natural life, But it is my will and desire that she ne gors shall not be carried aught of the county of Camden, nor none of the other property lent her, but for her to sell sufficient for her support—

I give unto my son Joseph Morris after the death of Miss Smith the land and plantation lent to Dianah Smith and also Giny and her daughter together with all the chattel property which may be left at her death unto him and his heirs forever, But it is my will and desire that my Executor hereafter be appointed to sell as much of my property as will be sufficient to pay all my just and lawful debts and of such property as he may think best, lastly I nominate my friend Caleb Perkins my whole and sole Executor to this my last will and testament the day and date first above written Signed, Sealed and delivered in the presence of

Elijah Staples
Abraham ^{his} Davis
Mark

Joseph Morris

Seal

Camden County Court February Term 1825

This was exhibited in open court and proved as the last will and testament of Joseph Morris and by the oath of Elijah Staples a subscribing witness thereto in due form of law and Caleb Perkins the Executor therein named refusing to qualify, it is ordered to be recorded.

Teste

In the name of God Amen, I Thomas Wright of the county of Camden and State Carolina being weak in body but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God, do this Nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty four make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say—

I leave unto my friend Stephen S. Snowden and his wife Priscilla Snowden all my land and plantation and one negro boy by the name