

In the name of God Amen! I, Lydia Grandy of the County of Camden & State of North Carolina being in a poor state of health but in sound memory do make this my last will & Testament.
I give & bequeath to my son Caleb Grandy my part of two negro girls that was sold, named Channy & Joe - I give & bequeath to my son Caleb Grandy all my cattle, that has come since his father's death & likewise all my sheep and three stocks of bees his first choice and I give & bequeath to my son Caleb Grandy all my orchery, maw & one half of my poultry, one half of my poultry, and one dutch hen & one frying pan - I do acknowledge this to be my last will in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the thirtieth day of November 1821.
Signed in presence of us  Lydia ^{her} Grandy  Seal Elias Williams
Peggy ^{her} Williams  And I Lydia Grandy do leave my son Caleb Grandy to be Executor to my will -

Camden County Court. November Term 1822.

The foregoing was exhibited in open Court & proved as the last will & Testament of Lydia Grandy by the oath of Peggy Williams a Subscribing witness thereunto - And at same time Caleb Grandy an Executor therein named appeared & qualified as executor thereof - Ordered that Testamentary letters issue & that the same be Recorded.
Test. W. S. Lewis. Clerk.

The nuncupative will of Miloughby Jones dec'd made & declared in his last sickness in his own habitation & dwelling house - wherein he had resided for several years previous to his death. In the presence of John Ferrell and Daniel Cottle, who was both specially required to bear witness thereof by the Testator himself on the night of the sixteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty two, which was reduced to writing on the 19th day of the above stated month - In words as follows which was spoken by the said Testator as aforesaid in the presence of the aforenamed persons who was specially required by the Testator to bear witness of the same - Namely:
It is my will & desire that my beloved wife shall have all my estate of every denomination whatsoever, after paying all of my just debts, all

It is my wish and desire that my worthy friend Joseph Brown should take my business in hand & see to it as I think he is most best acquainted with my affairs the same being published and declared by the said Mil-loughby Jones the Testator as his last will and Testament in the presence of us who was present at the time of the Testator making declaration thereof.
Test. John Ferrell. Daniel Cottle -

Camden County Court. November Term 1822.

The within was exhibited in open Court & proved as the nuncupative will of Miloughby Jones dec'd by the oath of John Ferrell & Daniel Cottle the Subscribing witnesses thereto in due form of Law in motion ordered to be Recorded.
Test. W. S. Lewis. Clerk.

In the name of God Amen! I John Kelly of Camden County and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind & knowing that I have to die, think proper to make this my last will & Testament - commencing with resigning my soul to God that I go with a full hope in my redemption and as to my worldly goods, I give and bequeath as follows.
Item. I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Nancy, the use of one half of the plantation, wherein I now live, beginning at the North end at the Swamp, & running northerly the middle of the plantation, say all to the eastward of the Mill, until it comes half way or includes one half the said lands, with the use of Rail Timber and firewood off of any of my land to support the same, likewise I give her the use of one half of my mills, until January, eighteen hundred & thirty two, should she live so long, and after that period one third part of the mill during her natural life which is understood to be the case with the plantation Likewise I give her the choice of two beds & furniture, one Green chest, one trunk her choice of two tables, six chairs all the Orckery & Glass ware, and all the Kitchen furniture, one Loom, one spinning wheel, one bay mare, two cows & calves her choice, one dog, other, four sheep, seven dry hogs her choice two breeding sows, eight sheats her choice, all the poultry, all the crop of flax & two hundred weight rough cotton One half the present crop of corn & peas, one plough her choice, with harrow, two hoes, one ax, one meat stand & two barrels in the smoke house Item. I give and bequeath to my son James the half of the plantation I live on at the north end to be divided by a direct line between him and