I Asa Connor, being of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following - viz:
I loan to my beloved wife Sofiah Connor provide she should never marry during her life all of my land and all the rest and residue of my estate goods and chattels and in case my said wife should marry again, I loan to her after marriage, and during her life one third of the above named lands and one fifth of all the above named estate; and at her death, in case she should never marry, I give all of the above named land and rest and residue of the above named estate to my three children viz: George D. William H. and Sarah F. Connor to be equally divided between them, to them their heirs forever. And in case my aforesaid wife should marry again, at such marriage I give the two thirds of the above named land and the one fifth of the above named rest and residue and estate, not loaned my wife in that case, to my above named children to be equally divided between them at that time, and at the death of aforesaid wife in case she should marry, the one third of the above named land and one fifth of the above named estate, I give to my three above named children to be equally divided between them their heirs forever.
I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my sons George D. and William H. Connor my executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking other last wills by me made at any time.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal. Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us
