

I, Avis Ward of Carteret County, and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, the my parts, and clause, thereof. hereby revoking and is to say, — I first of all command my soul, leaving utterly void, all other wills, and Testaments to God who gave it, knowing, that I must appear before him, at the great day of Judgment, when in said Avis Ward, do hereunto, set my hand and secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed. My body I give, to be decently buried, according to the desire of my friends and neighbors. Secondly, the my executor or executors hereinafter mentioned, shall stand by the said Avis Ward to pay all my funeral expenses, together, with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may first come into his or their hands; as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item, I give and bequeath, to my youngest son, William R. Ward five dollars, to be paid out of my estate by my executor or executors. I also give and bequeath, to my daughter Elizabeth C. Ward five dollars, to be paid out of my estate, by executor or executors.

Item. I give and bequeath, to my eldest daughter, Julia F. Ward, David S. Ward and Cicens H. Ward their heirs, and assigns forever, all my share of my estate by the death of my husband Ward, now undivided, all of my perishable property consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs, the same is, to say, my live stock, with my canoe, house and kitchen furniture, to be equally divided between them, after paying all my just debts, five dollars a piece to my youngest son, and youngest daughter, first above mentioned. If Julia, or Cicens, dies, without any lawful heirs, it shall go to the next two, or one, of them, and lastly I do institute and appoint William S. Ward and Rufus Bell my lawful executors, to all intents and purposes, execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent, and meaning of the same; and my parts, and clause, thereof. hereby revoking and is to say, — I first of all command my soul, leaving utterly void, all other wills, and Testaments to God who gave it, knowing, that I must appear before him, at the great day of Judgment, when in said Avis Ward, do hereunto, set my hand and secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed. My body I give, to be decently buried, according to the desire of my friends and neighbors. Secondly, the signed, sealed, published and stand by the said Avis Ward to pay all my funeral expenses, together, with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may first come into his or their hands; as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item, I give and bequeath, to my youngest son, William R. Ward five dollars, to be paid out of my estate by my executor or executors. I also give and bequeath, to my daughter Elizabeth C. Ward five dollars, to be paid out of my estate, by executor or executors.

Item. I give and bequeath, to my eldest daughter, Julia F. Ward, David S. Ward and Cicens H. Ward their heirs, and assigns forever, all my share of my estate by the death of my husband Ward, now undivided, all of my perishable property consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs, the same is, to say, my live stock, with my canoe, house and kitchen furniture, to be equally divided between them, after paying all my just debts, five dollars a piece to my youngest son, and youngest daughter, first above mentioned. If Julia, or Cicens, dies, without any lawful heirs, it shall go to the next two, or one, of them, and lastly I do

Avis ^{her} mark ^{Ward} ^{Seal}

Elijah Farmer Jr.

Carteret County Court, February Term A.D. 1856.

The foregoing paper writing is exhibited for probate open Court, by Rufus W. Bell, one of the executors named, and the due execution thereof by the testator, Avis Ward, is proved by the oaths and examination of Elijah Farmer Jr., one of the subscribers thereto. It is therefore considered by said Court that said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the testator, Avis Ward, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

And thereupon the said Rufus W. Bell, a citizen as aforesaid, qualified as such by taking the oath required by law.

Jas. Rumley C.C.
(See pages 201, 202 & 203)