It is, therefore, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-and every part thereof is the last and Testament of Thomas E. Harris.
Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.
This 18th day of June, 1897.

L. A. Garver
Clerk Superior Court.

I, B. F. Taylor of the County of Kaufman State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare my last will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say:

First. My will and desire is, that my Executors hereinafter named shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses out of any moneys that may come into their hands as a part of parcel of my estate.

I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Julia F. Taylor, during the term of her natural life, the farm on which I now live, on Bogue Sound in said County, containing about seventy-five acres, with all the improvements thereon, with the privilege of cutting rail timber and fire wood on any and all of my land, also all of the household and kitchen furniture and one hundred dollars in cash in lieu of her years provisions.

My will and desire is that the remainder of my personal estate shall be sold by my Executors for cash and after paying my debts, to divide the proceeds equally between all of my children.

I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Julia F. Taylor guardian of the estate of all of my children who may be under the age of twenty one year at the time of death.

That she shall not be required to bond as such guardian, or be to account to any Court for any money or property that may be put into her hands for them.

I hereby constitute and appoint three sons, B. F. Taylor, C. P. Taylor, Leon P. Taylor, Executors, without bond, of this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this day of July 28th 1893

B. F. Taylor
Signed, sealed, published and declared in presence of us, by B. F. Taylor, to be his last will and Testament
