

Fourthly I give to my son Jeremiah Oglesby one good feather bed, to Saml. the poor has in paper.
Fifthly I give to my son Jackson Oglesby two small feather beds, and to my two daughters, Frances and Sarah Oglesby, each one good feather bed.

My will and desire is that after the death of my wife Jane my land and premises be divided among my children in the same manner as is now represented on a plat given to my son Jackson the Southern part of joining the land of David Gould and a piece of land sold to Samuel H. Turner including the house and premises where I now live. And to my other four children the same as is represented on the plat.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved sons Isaac H. Oglesby and Jackson Oglesby my executors to my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, the said Jeremiah Oglesby have hereunto set my hand and seal this September the seventeenth one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven.
Jeremiah Oglesby

Signed, sealed, published and declared in presence of us
David D. Quinn
Samuel H. Turner
David H. Quinn

Contract before Judge of Probate, January 1867.
The execution of the foregoing will is sworn according to law by the oath and examination of David D. Quinn and David H. Quinn subscribing witnesses thereto, who swear that they saw Jeremiah Oglesby execute the same as his last will and testament, that they attested the same in his presence and at his request, and that at the time of its execution, he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory. Isaac H. Oglesby and Jackson Oglesby the executors named in the will, having consented to taking and subscribing the oath prescribed by law.

John Bentley, Judge of Probate

I, Benjamin L. Perry of the Town of Beaufort, County of Currituck and State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

I give and devise unto my beloved son, Benjamin L. Perry, my undivided interest in the water lot in Beaufort No. Two Hundred and forty seven (247) which I purchased of J. S. C. Davis, as per deed dated the 14th day of August 1860, together with the store house and other improvements thereon. To have and to hold the same, to him the said Benjamin L. Perry, his heirs and assigns forever.

I give and devise unto my beloved son John M. Perry that part of water lots in Beaufort, upon which my office stands, which I purchased of the Commissioners of Beaufort, as per deed dated 30th April 1857, being parts of water lots Nos. Two hundred and forty seven and two hundred and forty eight, together with the office situated thereon. To have and to hold the same to him the said John M. Perry, his heirs and assigns forever.

I give, devise and bequeath, all the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of which I shall be seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled, at the time of my decease, to my beloved wife Elizabeth, to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Provided that whatever debts may be legally due and owing from my estate at my death shall be paid out of the property herein devised and bequeathed to my said wife. And for the purpose of settling such debts my executors may sell said property or any part thereof, at public or private sale.

And I do nominate and appoint my said wife Elizabeth and my said sons Benjamin and John M. Perry, my executors and executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, the said Benjamin L. Perry, do hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of April A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven.

Benj. L. Perry
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Benjamin

L. Perry to be his last will and testament, in presence of us, who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses.

Jas. Rumley
Allen Davis

Probate Court, Craven Co. S. C.

Newbern April 7th. 1870.

The foregoing paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Benjamin L. Perry dec. is this day exhibited in open Court by Benjamin Perry, one of the parties named therein, and the due and legal execution thereof proven by the oath and examination of James Rumley and Allen Davis, the subscribing witnesses thereto. And further, said subscribing witnesses being by me examined touching the execution of said will, testify that in the presence of said Benjamin L. Perry deceased, and of each other, and at the request of said Perry, they signed said paper writing. It is adjudged that said paper writing and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of said Benjamin L. Perry dec., and is ordered to be recorded and filed.

J. E. West Judge of Probate

Carters County Court of Probate. 8th Apr. 26. 1870
In the matter of the Probate of the last will and testament of Benjamin L. Perry deceased,

Benjamin L. Perry, who applies for Letters Testamentary on the estate of said deceased, makes oath,

That he is one of the executors named in the will of the deceased;

That the testator's property consists of real and personal estate, the value of which, as near as can be ascertained, is fifteen thousand dollars;

That the names and residences of the parties entitled to the testator's property are as follows:

Elizabeth V. Perry, the widow of the deceased testator, John M. Perry, and Benjamin L. Perry, sons of the testator. Elizabeth V. Perry is a resident of Carters County, John M. Perry is a resident of Edgecombe County, and Benjamin L. Perry is a resident of Craven County. All are over the age of 21 years.

Benjamin L. Perry

Shewn to and subscribed before me

Jas. Rumley, Judge of Probate.

State of North Carolina, Carters County

May 5th. 1870

I, Richard Roberts, do hereby declare that I have this day made and published my last will and testament, and that I do being persuaded of the uncertainty of life, and therefore of the necessity of properly disposing of my earthly affairs.

I give to my beloved son, Randolph Roberts, all that part of my Wicks tract of land lying East of Jaspers Branch, to be his property forever, having for its Western boundary the ditch running from S. M. put down at said Jaspers Branch, with the channel of said branch as a line, said tract of land being thus set apart containing one hundred acres, more or less.

I give to my son, Richard Roberts, all that part of my Wicks land lying West of Jaspers Branch, and having for its Eastern boundary the aforesaid ditch and branch that forms the Western boundary of the tract given to my son, Randolph Roberts. Said fifty acres to belong to my son, Richard Roberts forever.

All the rest of my real and personal estate I leave to be divided between my beloved wife, Rebecca Roberts, and all the heirs of my body, as the law directs - asking God's blessing on all I leave behind me in this world.

I do hereby appoint my trusty and beloved son, Richard Roberts, executor to this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand.