

State of North Carolina,
Carteret County.

I, Charity E. Davis, of the Town of Beaufort, County and State aforesaid, being mindful of the uncertainty of life, and being of sound and disposing mind: &c. do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will & testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Allen Davis and her heirs, one-half of the following real and personal property, to wit: lot of ground number sixty seven (67) Old Town in the Town of Beaufort, where I now reside with improvements thereon; the Eastern half of lot of ground number sixty eight (68) Old Town in the Town of Beaufort; all personal property which may belong to me at the time of my death and my household and kitchen furniture.

Second, I give the other half of said real and personal property, to my daughter, Betsey E. Davis, to have and enjoyed by her until her marriage death; and upon the occurrence of either of these events, my will and desire is, that all the property hereby given to my said daughter Betsey, shall pass to and be vested in my said daughter Mary and her heirs, if she be then living, and if she be not then living, then my will and desire is that said property shall pass to and be vested in the issue of my said daughter Mary, and her heirs, and if such issue be not then living, then the issue of such issue, if living and born within the time required by law, and her heirs, forever.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 16th day of April 1875.

Charity E. Davis (Real)

Witness, sealed, published & declared by the testatrix, to be her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, and in her presence, subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

John Rumley
George Walker

State of North Carolina
Carteret County

The execution

of the foregoing will and testament of Charity E. Davis was proved before me this day according to law by the oaths of John Rumley and George Walker the subscribing witnesses thereto, who swear that they saw Charity E. Davis execute the same as her last will and testament. That they attested it in her presence and at her request and at the time of its execution she was of sound mind and memory.

The said paper writing is then pronounced to be the last will and testament of the said Charity E. Davis and the same is admitted to probate and ordered to be registered.

Witness my hand and official seal this 21st day of December 1887.

Jos. D. Davis

Clerk Superior Court

28

State of North Carolina,
Catawba County.

I, Charity E. Davis of the Town of Beaufort, County and State aforesaid, being mindful of the uncertainty of life, and being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will & testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Ellen Davis and her heirs, one half of the following real and personal property, to wit: lot of ground number sixty seven (67) Old Town in the Town of Beaufort, where I now reside, with improvements thereon; the Eastern half of lot of ground number sixty eight (68) Old Town in the Town of Beaufort; all personal property which may belong to me at the time of my death and my household and kitchen furniture.
Second, I give the other half of said real and personal property, to my daughter, Bettie B. Davis, to be enjoyed by her until her marriage or death; and upon the occurrence of either of these events, my will and desire is, that all the property hereby given to my said daughter Bettie, shall pass to and be vested in my said daughter Mary and her heirs, if she be then living, and if she be not then living, then my will and desire is that said property shall pass to and be vested in the issue of my said daughter Mary, and her heirs, and if such issue be not then living, then the issue of such issue, if living and born within the time required by law, and her heirs, forever.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 16th day of April 1875.

Charity E. Davis (Real)

signed, sealed, published and declared, by the testatrix, to be her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, and in her presence, subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

John Rummey
George Walker

State of North Carolina
Catawba County

The execution

of the foregoing will and testament of Charity E. Davis was proved before me this day according to law by the oaths of John Rummey and George Walker the subscribing witnesses thereto, who sworn that they saw Charity E. Davis execute the same as her last will and testament.
That they attested it in her presence and at her request and at the time of its execution she was of sound mind and memory.

The said paper writing is then for-judged to be the last will and testament of the said Charity E. Davis and the same is admitted to probate and ordered to be registered.
Witness my hand and official seal this 21st day of December 1887.

Jos. D. Davis
Clerk Superior Court