

mind and memory, of full age to execute a will

The said paper writing is therefore adjudged to be the Last Will and Testament of the said John D. Davis and the same is admitted to probate and ordered to be registered.

Witness my hand and official seal this the 23rd day of August 1889

(LS)

Jas. D. Davis
Clerk Superior Court

I, Charity J. Sewell of the town of Beaufort, County of Currituck, and State of North Carolina, being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to my say:

My will and desire is that my Executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial and pay out of my funeral expenses and just debts.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary A. Davis all of my property, both real and personal and mixed.

I hereby appoint my son in law J. B. Davis Executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this the day of September 1889

Charity J. Sewell Exec

Witnesses

October 8th 1889 } Nathan L. Carrow
Chas. S. Carrow

State of North Carolina
Currituck County

The foregoing paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charity J. Sewell deceased is exhibited for probate by J. B. Davis the Executor named therein and the examination thereof made by the oaths and examination of N. L. Carrow and Chas. S. Carrow the subscribing witnesses shew, who swear that they saw the said Charity J. Sewell execute the same as her last will and testament. That they attested it in her presence and at her request and at the time of its execution the said Charity J. Sewell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will.

The said paper writing is therefore adjudged to be the last will and testament of the said Charity J. Sewell and the same is admitted to probate and ordered to be registered. Witness my hand and official seal this the 11th day of October 1889

(LS)

Jas. D. Davis
Clerk Superior Court