

oath and examination of J. Howard Wade, one of the subscribers being witnesses thereto, and of M. J. Wallace, as follows:

North Carolina, Carteret County.

J. Howard Wade, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of A. F. Fodrie, and that he saw A. F. Fodrie execute the writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said A. F. Fodrie, deceased; and at the time of its execution said A. F. Fodrie was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory. Affiant further deposes that J. B. Willis, the other subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said J. B. Willis is now dead.

J. H. Wade

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 15th day of January, 1911.

T. C. Wade

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

North Carolina, Carteret County.

M. J. Wallace, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of J. B. Willis, one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper writing purporting to be the will of A. F. Fodrie, deceased, which is here exhibited, dated the 17th day of March, A. D. 1904, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said J. B. Willis subscribed as a witness to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said J. B. Willis.

M. J. Wallace

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 15th day of January, 1911.

T. C. Wade

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of A. F. Fodrie, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this Certificate be recorded and filed.

This 15th day of January, 1911.

T. C. Wade

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

North Carolina, Carteret County.

I Daniel H. Dickinson of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament: first my executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts out of the first money which may come into his hands belonging to my estate, second, I give and devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy H. Dickinson all my property both real and personal all my land in Beaupre Township, Carteret County, North Carolina and all my personal property of every kind, to her and to her heirs and assigns for ever.

I hereby constitute and appoint my truly friend L. J. French my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same. In witness whereof I the said Daniel H. Dickinson do hereunto set my hand and seal this 8 day of April 1910.

D. H. Dickinson (seal)

Signed Seal published and declared by the said Daniel H. Dickinson to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of D. H. Dickinson, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by L. J. French, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said D. H. Dickinson, by the oath and examination of G. D. Purify and J. W. Stiley the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of D. H. Dickinson, that the said D. H. Dickinson in the presence of the Subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 8 day of April 1910.

And the deponent further saith, that the said D. H. Dickinson, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said D. H. Dickinson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further, these deponents say not.
