

Dorcas Franklin by the oath and examination of W. L. Arrington and Richard Rice, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deponent further saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Dorcas Franklin, that the said Dorcas Franklin in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of December, 1901.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Dorcas Franklin the testatrix aforesaid, did notwithstanding of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix.

And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Dorcas Franklin was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponente say not.

W. L. Arrington
Richard Rice

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 30th day

In the name of God: Amen.

I David H. Mansfield, of the Borough of Madison, in the County of Morris and State of New Jersey being of sound mind, Memory and Understanding, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:

First. It is my will, and I do order and direct that all my just debt, funeral and testamentary expenses be duly paid and satisfied out of my estate, as soon as conveniently can be after my decease.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my sons David H. Mansfield, Harry H. Mansfield and Melvin L. Mansfield, and to my daughter Violet May Mansfield, the sum of one Thousand dollars, each, as they shall reach the age of twenty one years, to and for their sole and separate use; and to my dear friend Francis J. Harrigan, the sum of Four Hundred dollars, to and for her sole and separate use.

Item. It is my will that the above named legacies shall be paid to the amount from my share, or interest, in my present business in the City of New York, and that until such time as my said children shall reach the age of twenty one years, respectively, the interest on the above named legacies shall be to and for the sole use and benefit of my wife Mary L. Mansfield, and as each one of my said children shall reach their majority and receive their legacy, then the interest of the remaining legacies shall go to my said wife until all have been paid; and if any one of my children shall die before reaching the age of twenty one years, the share of such child or children shall go to my said wife Mary L. Mansfield, for her sole & separate use.

Item. After the payment of my debts, the expense of settling my estate, and the legacies hereinbefore named, I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife Mary L. Mansfield, all the rest of my estate, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, to and for her sole and separate use, her heirs & assigns.

Item. I hereby authorize and direct my executors hereinafter named, to take charge of, and manage my interest in my business.

of New York, until such time as they may be able to make a satisfactory disposition of the same, hereby giving to them or the survivors or survivor of them, full power and authority to dispose of my said business at anytime they in their judgment deem best.

Lastly. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my dear brother William H. Turner, and my brother-in-law Henry H. Sacks, Executors, and my beloved wife Mary L. Mansfield, Executrix, without bond, of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fifth day of July A.D. Eighteen hundred and Ninety three.

David H. Mansfield (L.S.)
