It is therefore Considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Susanna M. Cain, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.
This 1st day of September, 1916.

T. C. Wade
Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,
Carteret County.

I, Edward Williams, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and Testament:-

First: My executors, hereinafter named, shall give to my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relations; and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my wife, Hagar, a life right, subject to the Conditions hereinafter mentioned, in and to the house and property where I now live, in satisfaction of her dower and one third in my lands.

Third: To my sons, Edward, and John, and my daughter, Claudy, I give, devise, and bequeath, the house and lot whereon I now reside, subject to the right of my wife, Hagar, to remain in said house and in Control of said property as long as she shall remain a widow and reside in said house and on said premises; and should she, the said Hagar, my wife, attempt to sell said house, or lot, or if she shall cease to live in said house, or to occupy the said premises, then said property, herein set out, shall, on the happening of such Condition, or Conditions, become at once the property immediately of my two sons, Edward and John, and my daughter, Claudy.

My will and desire is, that when my two sons and daughter shall come into the possession of said property that if either of them wishes to dispose of his or her share in same that he or she give to the other the privilege and right of purchasing same, allowing to him or her, on such transfer, the privilege of paying the purchase money in convenient installments, allowing a reasonable time in which to make such final payment as may be agreed upon between the party selling and the party purchasing.

Fourth: My will and desire is, and I do direct, devising and bequeathing same, that my insurance in the Old Fellow Order, and my insurance in the Atlantic Brotherhood, shall be equally divided between my wife Hagar, and my five children, now living, John and et alike.

Fifth: All the real and residue of my property, real and personal and mixed, I give, devise and bequeath to my children Josephine Williams, my daughter, and Fred Williams, my son - share and share alike.

Sixth: I hereby constitute and appoint Josephine Williams and Fred Williams my lawful executors to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said Edward Williams, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 1st day of September, 1909.

Edward Williams ^{his} X (seal)

In the Superior Court,
Before the Clerk.

In the matter of the will of Edward Williams, deceased.

The paper/writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of Edward Williams, deceased is exhibited before the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County, North Carolina, by Fred Williams, one of the executors therein named, and therefore the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of J. F. Duncan, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and of C. R. Wheatly, as follows:

North Carolina,
Carteret County.

J. F. Duncan, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a subscribing witness to the paper/writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Edward Williams, and that he saw Edward Williams execute said writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said Edward Williams, deceased; and at the time of its execution said Edward Williams was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory. Affiant further avers that Thos. Gold, the other subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant, and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said Thos. Gold now resides out of the State of North Carolina, and in the State of Virginia, as affiant is advised.

J. F. Duncan

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
this 12th day of December, 1916.

T. C. Wade

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

North Carolina,
Carteret County.

C. R. Wheatly, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of Thos. Gold, one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper/writing purporting to be the will of Edward Williams, deceased, which is hereto attached, dated the 1st day of September, 1909, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said Thos. Gold subscribed as a witness to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said Thos. Gold; that said Thos. Gold now resides out of the State of North Carolina.

C. R. Wheatly.

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
