I Elizabeth J. Swindell, of the town of Beaufort, and County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of life, do make and Declare this my last will and testament, to wit:

I give and devise to my nephew Samuel W. Williams, part of lot of ground number forty one, in the old Town of the Town of Beaufort and improvements thereon where I now reside, at the corner of 10th of Ann and Moore streets, and more particularly described in a deed from Elizabeth Pitt & others, to me, dated July 1863 and registered in book D D page 409 of the records in the Register's office of Carteret County March 28th 1872.

Elizabeth J. Swindell

Witness

Jimmie C. Hudgins
acknowledged before me
John Rumley

State of North Carolina
Carteret County }

The Execution of the foregoing will and testament of Elizabeth J. Swindell died was duly proven before me this day according to law by the oath of Jimmie C. Hudgins now Jimmie C. DeKrisson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, to wit:

swears that she saw Elizabeth J. Swindell execute the same as her last will and testament: that she attested it at her request and in her presence and at the time of its execution she was of sound mind and memory.

The other subscribing witness to said will John Rumley is dead, and his handwriting being proven to my satisfaction by the oath and examination of James C. Davis that he is acquainted with the handwriting of John Rumley who is now dead that the signature of John Rumley to said will is the signature of John Rumley.

The said paper writing is therefore adjudged to be the last will and testament of the said Elizabeth J. Swindell and the same is admitted to probate and ordered to be registered. Witness my hand and official seal this the 20th day of March A.D. 1889.
