

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Bryan Daniels, to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence do sign our names as witnesses thereto.

Samuel Leffers
Richard Leffers.

Carteret County, Court of Probate. March 14, 1879.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved before me according to law by the oath and examination of Richard Leffers, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who ^{as his last will & testament} that he saw Bryan Daniels execute the said will, by the name of Bryan Daniels, which appears subscribed to said will; that he said Richard Leffers, attested it in the presence of the said Bryan Daniels and at his request; and that at the time of its execution, he, the said Bryan Daniels, was, in the opinion of said Richard Leffers, of sound mind and disposing memory. And the said Richard Leffers further swears that Samuel Leffers, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, is dead; that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Samuel Leffers, having often seen him write; and that the name of the said Samuel Leffers, subscribed as a witness to said will, is in the hand writing of the said Samuel Leffers.

(See Book of "Orders & Decrees" page 88)

Jas. Cumby,

Judge of Probate.

Jesse Daniels qualifies as Executor.

This my last will and testament.

I Francis Garner Sen. of the County of Carteret and State of North Carolina, being old and feeble in health, but sound in mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, thereby revoking all former wills by me made.

First, After my decease my body to be decently buried and the funeral expenses paid, then my estate real and personal with cents and interest I leave to my wife Susanna during her life time or widowhood, after which I would have it divided in the following manner: My land in the village of Newport, containing three acres to be divided in five equal parts in straight lines running from the Newbern road to the land belonging to the estate of Thomas Mann Sen. dec'd. and lot or piece No. 1 adjoining Thomas Hill I give to my daughter Susan No. 2 I give to my daughter Mary Jane No. 3 to my daughter Elender No. 4 I give to my daughter Esther No. 5 I give to my daughter Sally to be theirs separately with all the improvements thereon separately belonging. Also I give to each of my daughters above named a feather bed apiece which is to be divided according to valuation so that each will receive equal value. Also I give to my daughter Sally one cow and lamb. Then the balance of my personal estate sold and all my just debts paid and then what remains to be equally divided among my five daughters above mentioned. My two sons David W. and Ezekiel S. Garner have had their part.

I leave my son David W. Garner executor to this my last will. In witness ^{whereof} I have hereunto set my hand and seal Oct. 26 1865.

Francis Garner Sr. (Seal)

Witness

J. D. Adams

J. R. Adams

Carters County, Court of Probate. May 5, 1879.
 The execution of the foregoing will is proved before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of J. D. Mann, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and Ezekiel S. Garner. See their oaths here-annexed, and Book of Orders and Decrees, page 89.
 Jas. Rumley
 Judge of Probate.

I, John Jones, of the County of Carters and State of North Carolina, publish and declare this paper writing to be my last will and testament. I leave all my property both real and personal to my wife Sarah Carolina Jones, & to my three daughters Susan J. Jones, Sarah E. Jones & Mary A. Jones, equally - during their natural lives. At their deaths to be equally divided between all my lawful heirs. Should either of my said daughters marry, then they are to have only a child's part with all my lawful heirs in fee both male and female.
 My son Dr. W. C. Jones I have given hitherto bequethed a portion of my property. I wish him made equal with the rest of my heirs, counting the land already given him, but nothing herein said is to effect the rights of my daughters and wife as above mentioned. My wife Sarah E. Jones is to have the control of the household affairs & shall not be interfered with by any other parties concerned in this matter & withoutless I hope and desire that it may continue to be a happy home for herself and my three daughters.
 I hold a policy on the W. B. Mutual Aid Society for one thousand dollars. It is my desire that when collected my just debts be paid out of it and the residue be divided equally between my wife Sarah E. Jones, and my three daughters Susan J. Jones, Sarah E. Jones and Mary A. Jones. I hereby appoint my son P. L. Jones as Executor of this my last will and testament.

Signed, sealed, published
 and declared before us,
 James L. Mann
 & P. Arendell

John Jones ^{Testator}

Carters County, Court of Probate. June 11, 1879.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of James L. Mann and P. Arendell, the subscribing witnesses thereto; who swear that they saw John Jones execute the same as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request; and that at the time of its execution he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

(See Book of Orders and Decrees, page 90)

Jas. Rumley
 Judge of Probate.

I, Frederick Markett of the County of Carters and State of N. C., realizing the uncertainty of human life, and being of sound mind, though feeble and infirm physically, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament - viz:

1st. I give and bequeath to my son Edward all the notes or accounts I now hold against him as his distributive share of my estate.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my daughter Joanna the sewing machine now in my house, one bed and furniture now in her possession, one cow and calf and one sow & pigs.

3rd. I give and bequeath to Martin Lewis one dollar.
 And the balance of my possessions I give and bequeath in common to my beloved wife and my sons, Benjamin Franklin and Elijah Rosco, until Benjamin Franklin shall become twenty one years of age, and then all