

Carteret County:-- In the Superior Court In the Matter of the Will of Scarbar Simpson Denard E. Simpson being duly sworn, deposes and says that Scarbar Simpson, late of said County, is dead having first made and published her last Will and Testament; and that Denard E. Simpson is the executor named therein.
Further, that the property of the said Scarbar Simpson consisting of personal property is worth about $30, so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that J. L. Simpson, John Simpson, Alex Simpson, Denard E. Simpson, Callie A. Spingler, Jennie Bell, Pearl Taylor daughter of W. H. Taylor are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.
D. E. Simpson.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 27th day of May 1899, L. A. Garner, Clerk Superior Court.

State of North Carolina, Carteret County.
I, Scarbar Simpson, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament; I give, and bequeath, all my property, of every kind and description, to all my children, to be equally divided between them, by my executor hereinafter named, after all my just debts and burial expenses, including tomb stones are paid.
I hereby appoint my son Denard E. Simpson, executor of this my last will and testament, and authorize him to sell my property.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this day of April 1881 J. L. Dudley
Scarbar Simpson

Rosie Simpson being sworn deposes and says that Scarbar Simpson the testatrix to the foregoing and attached will is now dead and that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Scarbar Simpson having often seen her write and that her signature subscribed thereto is in her own hand writing.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Scarbar Simpson, deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Denard E. Simpson, the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Scarbar Simpson by the oath and examination of J. L. Dudley the subscribing witness thereto; who being duly sworn, de-poses and says and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Scarbar Simpson, in the presence of his deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bear date of the day of April 1881.
And the deponent further said that she said Scarbar Simpson the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the

And this deponent further said that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Scarba Simpson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

before me, this 2nd day of May 1899. L. A. Garner, Clerk Superior Court.

I Edward W. Pelletier of the County of Carters and State of North Carolina, being in health of body and of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make public and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:
First: That my executors hereinafter named, one or both, shall provide for my body a decent burial in a simple and unostentatious manner, and pay all my funeral expenses, including a simple monument or tombstone to mark my resting place and to pay all of my just debts to whomsoever owing out of the first money which shall come into their hands as a part of my estate.

Second: I desire that my body be laid to rest on Mr. William Fisher's plantation in a spot selected to be selected by him for his own burial.
