In Re: Will of }
W. J. Moore }

Probate.

A paper, writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W. J. Moore, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Henrietta McCall Moore, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Henrietta McCall Moore that the said Will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said W. J. Moore, after his death. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and Creditable witnesses, to wit: R. N. Mycock, J. C. Helms and H. E. Ferry, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. J. Moore, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said W. J. Moore, subscribed to the said Will and the said Will itself, and every part thereof is in the handwriting of the said W. J. Moore.

And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said W. J. Moore.

It is therefore Considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said W. J. Moore, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This, the 11, day of March, A.D. 1913.
