

Carteret County. Court of Probate. November 3d 1870.
 The execution of the foregoing will and codicil is proved, before me, according to law, by the oath examination of W. J. Bushnell and Benj. J. Bell, the subscribing witnesses thereto. W. J. Bushnell doth swear that he saw the said John H. Nelson execute them as his last will and testament, and Benjamin J.
 Bell swears that the said John H. Nelson acknowledged to him that he executed the same as his last will and testament. Both the subscribing witnesses swear that they attested the said will with the codicil, in the presence of the said John H. Nelson, and at his request; and that at the time of its execution he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.
