Eastern County
A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry J. Willis deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Cicero J. Willis, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Henry J. Willis by the oath and examination of Othway B. Davis one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown and purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry J. Willis that the said Henry J. Willis in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 7th day of March, 1894. And the deponent further saith that the said Henry J. Willis the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Henry J. Willis was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, is the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further that deponents say not.

Will of Ann Henry.

For application and will of ex. see "Book of Adm. Ex. and Goods" page 308.

I, Ann Henry being of sound mind and memory but aware of the uncertainty of life and declining in years do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows to wit.

1st I desire my just debts be first paid out of my estate.

2nd I give and bequeath to Mattie Henry, my grand daughter one bed and furniture and all monies in the bank to my credit at my death to be used and expended by Hyman Thompson my trusty friend and trustee for the support of said Mattie Henry.

3rd The residue of my property I desire to be equally divided between William Henry, his Henry Jane Nelson and Minerva Mumford share and share alike.

I appoint Hyman Thompson executor to this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I hereto subscribe my name and make my private seal this July 24th, 1900.

And X Henry
Signed at the request of Ann Henry in her presence, and in the presence of each other and declared by her to be her last will and Testament.
