Last Will and Testament of Henry Rieger.

I, Henry Rieger, of Jackson County, Missouri, being of Sound Mind, and Realizing the Uncertainty of all human affairs, and desiring that my wishes in regard to the disposal of my property should be carried out after my death, do make this my last Will and Testament.

I. I hereby ~~revoke~~ ^{revoke} ~~cancel~~ ^{cancel} and declare void all wills heretofore made by me, and the instrument shall stand in the place and stead thereof.

II. I direct that all my just debts be paid out of my estate, all claims shall be presented and proved up before the Court having probate jurisdiction in the County and State of my residence at the time of my decease all requirements of statutes in the matter of proving such claims shall be strictly complied with.

III. After the allowance and payment of such debts and subject thereto, I give and bequeath to each one of my eight sons the sum of one thousand dollars the said sons being named as follows:—

A. H. Rieger, J. H. Rieger, W. T. Rieger, J. C. Rieger,
L. T. Rieger, C. F. Rieger, J. J. Rieger, D. V. Rieger,

In case of the death of any of the above children before receiving their share above named, then the share of said deceased son shall go to his child or children.

In case the deceased shall have no child or children then the sum of five hundred dollars shall be paid to his widow, if he be married (and his wife survive him) and the remainder shall go to and be distributed equally among my remaining sons.

IV. I give and bequeath to my sister Elizabeth Deickelborn, of Baltimore, Maryland, the sum of six hundred dollars. If she be dead at the time of the distribution of my estate, then said sum shall go to her two daughters. To John Wells, of Baltimore, Maryland, son of James Wells, a cripple I give and bequeath the sum of two hundred dollars. In case of his decease at the time of the distribution of my estate, then the sum of two hundred dollars shall go to his child or children.
