A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. H. Goodwin, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by T. L. Goodwin, one of the subscribing witnesses, and the due execution thereof by the said J. H. Goodwin by the oath and examination of T. L. Goodwin and J. C. Goodwin, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. H. Goodwin; that the said J. H. Goodwin, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17 day of July, 1914.

And this deponent further saith, that the said J. H. Goodwin the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. H. Goodwin was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent: And further that deponents say not.
