

(the future increase of said slaves to be made in this bequest) The said slaves to be kept without selling any.

Second. I give to my two sisters before mentioned, all my house hold furniture, and money that may remain after all my debts, my burial expenses, and the expenses settling my estate have been paid.

I desire that my Kitchen furniture may remain with my slaves under the control of my legs. I also desire also that some money shall be given to said slaves every year by my two sisters and the survivor of either of them while they live.

Lastly. I appoint John P. C. Davis and James Rumley, Executors of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the eighth day of September A.D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine.

Keturah King (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Keturah King as her last will and testament, in the presence of us.

John Rumley
R. W. Chadwick.

Caithurst County Court, August Term 1860.

The foregoing paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Keturah King deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court, by John P. C. Davis, one of the executors therein named, and the due execution thereof, by the said Keturah King, is proved by the oaths and examination of John Robert W. Chadwick, the subscribing witness thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court, that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Keturah King, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed. And thereupon the said John P. C. Davis, Executor as aforesaid, qualifies as such by taking the oath required by law.

Borden Haskitt.

Carters County Court, February Term A.D. 1840.

The foregoing paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of James E. Gibble, is exhibited for probate in open Court by James Rumley, one of the executors therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said James E. Gibble is proved by the oaths and sworn testimony of Robert W. Chadwick and Borden Kestner, the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is thereupon considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said James E. Gibble, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

And thereupon the said James Rumley, Executor as aforesaid, qualifies as such, taking the oath required by law.

Jas. Rumley

In the name of God, Amen: I, John Rustall, Senr., of the County of Carters and State of North Carolina, being of sound and perfect mind and memory, (blessed be God) do, this twentieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner following, that is to say:

First, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Nancy, at my death, the sum of five dollars in money.

Item 2d. I give and bequeath unto John Francis Longest, the two children of my daughter Sabra, the sum of twenty dollars to be expended by my son John Rustall in schooling them.

Item 3d. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Hannah Rustall, during her natural life one tract of land wherein I now reside, situated on the East side of Newport River on Rustalls Creek, containing one hundred and forty-eight acres, more or less (for the term of her natural life) one mahogany breakfast table, one bed and furniture, half dozen flag chairs, one cow and calf, two ewes and two lambs, one pig and figs and all the kitchen furniture. Item 4th. I give and bequeath unto my son John Rustall, and his heirs and assigns forever, the whole of the tract of land above bequeathed to my daughter during her natural life, to take full and entire possession of the same, at her death, also all the other property given to my daughter during her natural life, to take possession of the same at her death. I also give and bequeath unto the said John Rustall, all the household furniture (including a bureau) all the cattle, hogs, sheep &c. and all the property of every description not mentioned before, that may remain on hand at my death, to him and his heirs and assigns forever.

And I hereby make and ordain my son John Rustall, executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I the said John Rustall Senr. have to this my last will and Testament, set my hand and seal the day and year above written. The word "son" in the other page, interlined in the third line from bottom, before signing
